I owe to the authorities and staffs of the Personnel and Administrative Reforms Department, ATI Salt Lake, ATI Library, Library of IIPA New Delhi, Library of IIM Joka, National Library, District collectorate Howrah, Library of Writers’ Building Kolkata.

I am thankful to the respondents of the study area, who have given me their precious time and sincere efforts. I must thank to all the staffs of Dhar Brothers for their active assistance and printing the dissertation carefully.

I am grateful to Dr. Debashis Chatterjee, Principal, South Calcutta Law College, Kolkata, Dr. Anadi Kumar Mahapatra, Ex Professor, Sova Rani Memorial College, Jagatballavpur, for their scholarly advice and co-operation for my study.

Sharmistha Mondal Choudhury, my friend and co-researcher deserves my gratitude for her co-operation, friendly support and advice.

I am also thankful to my elder sister Tanima Sinha, brother-in-law Mr. Priyasis Sinha for their help and inspiration. Father-in-law Late Bijan Kumar Sarkar, Uncle-in-law Late Bimal Kumar Sarkar, Late Baren Kumar Sarkar, mother-in-law Ms Bandana Sarkar, Ms Lily Das, Mr. Kalipada Das and other relatives who always inspired and encouraged me to complete the study deserve my sincerest gratitude.

Debadrita, my daughter, inspired me all the time in spite of being deprived of mother’s attention and care she deserved. I am sincerely grateful to her. Anwesa, Ritoja and Rahul also encouraged me a lot for completing the study.

My husband Mr. Arup Sarkar deserves special appreciation and gratitude for his continuous inspiration, valuable suggestions (especially for sample design) in developing the dissertation and copy editing. I am too grateful to him for his patience, sincere sacrifice and high tech expertise in preparing the text. He also helped me by giving various advices for collecting data from fields and journals.

I express my deep gratefulness to my father Late Sri Nripendra Chandra Ghosal for preparing and inspiring me to conduct such a research work. I also express my heartfelt gratitude to my mother Ms Kalyani Ghosal for her constant co-operation, inspiration and a big help in daily life.

I am solely responsible for whatever limitations and oversights that my research work may have.
