ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Thanks to God - the Great Almighty, for giving me the strength and wisdom during the whole spell of my research work to complete this pleasurable challenging task. In addition, I gratefully acknowledge the assistance, support and encouragement of all those individuals, who have contributed directly or indirectly towards successful compilation and completion of this research work.

I am extremely indebted to my Research Supervisors – Dr. Rishipal, Professor, Amity University, Gurgaon, India and Dr. Vipin Jain, Professor, Teerthankaer Mahaveer Institute of Management & Technology (TMIMT), Teerthanker Mahaveer University (TMU), Moradabad, India for their continuous guidance, support, inspiration and visionary concept clarifications related to present research during the course of completion of the work. They provided me the required directions and valuable insights related to the topic at critical points, which helped to overcome many difficulties and learn a lot. The successful completion of this research could not have been possible without their encouragement and moral support.

I take this opportunity to sincerely acknowledge the guidance and support provided to me by the various faculties and officials from Teerthanker Mahaveer University (TMU), Moradabad. My special thanks to Ms. Vaishali Dhingra, Deputy Registrar, TMU and Mr. Rajeev Verma, Research coordinator, TMU. I also thank all the members of Department Research Committee for their valuable comments and suggestions given from time to time during various presentation sessions of research progress reports. My due thanks are also to Dr. Ajay K Garg, Former Executive Director, TMIMT and Dr. Vandana Verma, Former Research Coordinator, TMU for their kind support and encouragement, which provided a strong base to this research.

My utmost gratitude goes to my family members for their continuous support, inspiration and encouragement throughout my research work. My special thanks to my parents (Mrs. Rashmi Jain and Mr. Satish Jain) for their endless love and support. I am also thankful to my husband for his moral support and understanding me during the period of study. How I can forget the contribution of my younger brother Mr. Gaurav Jain for taking me to various places for completion of this study.

I also extend my gratitude to my colleagues, especially Mr. Pawan Chand, Assistant Professor, Indus Institute of Engineering and Technology, Jind for sparing his valuable time to advise me on various research issues and concepts and for helping me to collect relevant literature and support to form the basis of this research.

This study would have not been in this form without the valuable efforts of my students and friends, who helped me in data collection. I sincerely thank all of them.
