Acknowledgements

At the outset it is my primary duty to show my deepest gratitude of Prof.G. Prasad, M.Com., B.L., Ph.D., my guru and guide. It has been a boon and blessing working under his guidance. In fact he is my source of inspiration. His unflinching support and brotherly love. I never forget. I am indebted to him for his scholarly advice that has brought out the best in me. I thank him as well for honing my skills and instilling in me confidence in my ability to complete the task of research work.

Next, I express my heartfelt gratitude to Prof. T. Srinivas, M.Com., MBA., M.Phil., Ph.D., for his motivation that helped and encouraged me to give concrete shape to my aspiration for doing research.

I am indeed grateful to my Co-Research Scholars Dr.N. Ratna Kishore and Dr.P. Prasanna Kumar. My sincere thanks to both of them for having helped me in accomplishing this task. Their kind cooperation in gathering information from various sources is really unforgettable.

I profusely thank the Dean, Chairman and Faculty members of Commerce and Business Administration, Acharya Nagarjuna University for their cooperation and help during the period of my study. My thanks are due to the authorities of the Acharya Nagarjuna University for their co-operation in completing my research. I also thank the staff of the Library, Acharya Nagarjuna University who helped me in providing the necessary information.

I am also indebted to Managements, Principals, faculty members, non-teaching faculty, students and the parents of the colleges which are included in the study. Without their cooperation and help this work might not have been completed and hence I place on record my sincere thanks to all these persons.

I thank my friends and particularly the members of my family who stood by me in the hour of need. My special thanks to my wife Smt.L. Jaya Sudha and my son L. Abhimanyu for their cooperation, moral support and encouragement.
