ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

There could not have a better platform than this for me to express my deep rooted feeling for all those who, in some way or the other helped in the completion of my project and paved the way for me to comprehend the facts in a better perspective. The completion of any task is not only the reward to the persons actively involved in accomplishing it but also the people involved in inspiring, helping and guiding. I am highly indebted to Dr. A. Vinay Babu, Principal of Jawaharlal Nehru Technological University, for his invaluable support and guidance, which just cannot be put into words and who was also an edifice of encouragement.

I am also very thankful to Dr. Ramesh Babu Head of Department of Computer Science Acharya Nagarjuna University.

I am also very thankful to my co-advisor Dr. Zakaria Suliman Zubi, Computer Science Department Faculty of Science, Sirte University, Sirte Libya.

I wish to thank the Dr. Ramchandram and Dr. Raghavendra Rao Professor in Sirte Medical College, Sirte, Libya.

I extend my heartfelt thanks to the M.D. Razack Assistant Professor in Acharya Nagarjuna University and University Management the Department of computer Science and Engineering for giving me an opportunity to carry out my project at the University.
