ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The satisfaction that accompanies the successful completion of any task would be complete only with the mention of the people whose constant guidance and encouragement crown all the efforts with success. This acknowledgement transcends the reality of formality when I would like to express deep gratitude and respect to all those people behind the screen who guided, inspired and helped in bringing out this thesis.

I am highly privileged to express my deep sense of gratitude to my Guide and Research Supervisor Prof. V. Chandramouliswara Rao, M.A., M.D.P.A. D.L.S.O. Ph.D., Professor of Political Science and Public Administration, Sri Venkateswara University, Tirupati who has been a source of perennial inspiration to me for undertaking this research and also for his constant pains-taking guidance and advice throughout the period of my study.

I thank Prof C.V.S. Reddy, BOS., Prof. K. Narasimhulu, Principal, S.V.U. College of Arts., Prof G. Chandra Sekhara Rao, Dean of the Faculty of Arts., Shri Y. G. Naidu, Professor and Head of the Department and other learned professors of the Dept of Political Science & Public Administration for their constant encouragement. I am highly indebted to all the authorities of the University for extending all the required administrative support.
My late mother Dr. Kamalamma Kamalapuri has been my prime source of inspiration for prosecution of advanced studies. In this connection, I shall be failing in my duty if I do not profusely and whole heartedly thank my wife Smt Nirmala Kamalapuri who has extended her understanding support throughout the period of study, without which the thesis would not have seen the light of the day.

My foremost duty is to remember my mentor Late Shri Karanam Venkateswarlu, the General Secretary of SBI Officers Association, Hyderabad Circle, who was a great source of inspiration to me.

I am immensely grateful to my beloved friends Shri T.E. Jaya Prakash Rao, Shri V. Venugopalan and Shri L. Jayaprakasa Rao who are principally responsible for providing requisite zeal/ morale and extending the learned / commendable support throughout my efforts in successful completion of the task.

The invaluable contribution made my friend Shri Nagaraja Rao in presenting the thesis is laudable.
