ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I wish to acknowledge my deep sense of gratitude to a host of people for extending an academic support which is indispensable to any researcher. Their expertise helped me to conceptualize, crystallize and concretize the crucial issues encountered in this research investigation and led to the successful completion of this research investigation.

In particular, I am grateful to my guide and supervisor Dr (Mrs.) M Surat Kumari, Professor, Department of Post-Graduate Studies and Research in Commerce, Gulbarga University, Gulbarga for her encouragement and guidance. Her eyes on details in this research investigation are remarkable and I could flavor and enrich the thesis with the tiles of her expertise and experience.

I am grateful to retired professor Dr. K V Prabhakar, Department of Post-Graduate Studies and Research in Commerce and Management, who was constant guiding force and for his encouragement throughout my research.

I extend my heart-felt thanks to Dr. Waghamare Shivaji, Professor, and Dean Faculty of Commerce & Management, Chairman, Department of Post-Graduate Studies and Research in Commerce. Dr. Rajnalkar Laxman, Dr. C S Basvaraj, Dr. Boothpur Vijaya, Dr. B M Kanahalii and Dr. A.P Hosamani, Professors in the Department of Post-Graduate Studies and Research in Commerce, Gulbarga University, Gulbarga for their spontaneous help and encouragement.

My sincere thanks are due to the Librarian, Indian Institute of Science, Bengaluru for helping me in accessing the academic resources. I acknowledge with thanks the timely help of Mrs. M Manjula Rajan and Mrs. Kalavathi Nagendra of M P Birla Institute of Management, Bengaluru during the field survey.
I owe a debt of gratitude to Shri N. Ramanuja, Chairman, M P Birla Institute of Management, Bengaluru for providing me with an opportunity to take up this research leading to the award of Ph.D Degree. I sincerely thank Dr. N S Viswanath, Director, MPBIM, Bengaluru, Dr. Nagesh S. Malavalli, Dean, MPBIM, Bengaluru, Dr. S. Bisaliah, Professor Emeritus, MPBIM and to my colleagues at MPBIM who seamlessly translated my thoughts into actions. I cannot forget their help towards my professional development.

My grateful thanks are due to a number of mobile phone service providers who provided me with the data needed for my research investigation. They also extended their powerful ideas and illustrative figures which helped me immensely to gain an insight into the topic of research.

I am extremely grateful to all the respondents who willingly spared their valuable time in giving responses which have been quite helpful for making projections and arriving at valid conclusions.

I also extend my sincere gratitude to my friends for helping me more than one way. Finally, my thanks are due to my beloved mother Smt. S Jayalakshmi, wife Sow. R. Asha and daughter Chi. Dhanyashree and my Chi Brother Jayanth Chandramouli who patiently allowed time for me to complete this research

S. Hemanth Kumar