ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

“An analytical study of the impact of Govt.’s women and child welfare programmes in Akola Dist” On this subject Mr. Jagdeesh Prased Sabarmal Tibrewala University, Jhunjhunu, Jaipur, Rajasthan and under its fine Arts Department, I feed very good to submit this research thesis for acquiring Doctrate (Ph. D.) degree. Dwring the carry over of this research all the persons who supported and helped me, I realize it as my duty to pay sincere gratitude to all of them.

First of all in the philosophers touch and elixir of him, I undertook this research, completed and wrote the thesis. He also provided me proper guidance with high inspirations and made me to complete this task is only my guide and true teacher Dr. Dinkar Umbarkar whose I am indebted heactily.

I am also indebted to Dr. Sureshbhau Kale sir, my elder brother – in – law and the secretary of “Gramin Vikas Shikshan VA Krida Prasarak, Mandal, Khadki, Akola” for helping and guiding me to complete me to complete this research work.

I am deety indebted to Mr. Tripathi Sir, the co-ordinato of find Arts study Department, JJT University whose frequent guidance kept me on to take this work to its final destination.

Since when the idea to persue doctorate (Ph.D.) degree struck my mind, the beginning point from where I started and while completing to write this research, in each and every difficulty I was given continuous help, guidance and encouragement by the principal, Mr. Baliram Awachar, I pay very sincere thanks and gratitude to him.

I like to nemain forever indebted to my Late father and mother who encouraged me for the education, my husband Mr. Sanjay Kale for giving me support-all-time and for backing staunchly in my each and every work as well as my mother in law and other in law members. I am indebted to my brothers Ganesh Kawre, Dinesh Kaware, Chetan Kaware and nephew Aditya Kawre with whose help and inspiration I could complete my thesis.
While completing this research thesis I received in valuable guidance and help from many people among who are Prof. Raosaheb Thoke, prof. Sandip Bhowate, Prof. Sudhir Sudhir Deshmukh, Prof. Ganesh Borkar, Prof. Keshav Gore, Prof. Shailja Paralikar, Prof. Dipak Thakare, Prof. Santosh Ingle, Prof. Pralphul Pawar, Prof. Yogesh Kavade, Prof. Atul Langote, Prof. Sanket Kale, Prof. Rohit Kale, Prof. Ubedur Rehman, Mr. Sambhaji Kale, Mr. Navnath Admane, Mr. Santosh Pathare I am grateful to all of these fellows as with their help and inspiration I carried out my this work.

I am thankful heartily to the librarian Mrs. Dipali Deshmukh and Asst. Librarian Mr. Sugat Mohod from P.D. Patil College of Social work who made me available various reference material and books frequently. I am also thankful to teaching and non-teaching staff for their in time support to complete this work.

All the colleagues and students from P.D. Patil College of Social Work, the beneficiaries of various schemes and policies of women and child welfare department Madam Archana Ingole, the officer from women and child welfare department, giving necessary information through interview and questionnaires, probationary officer Mr. Girish Pusadhar Sir, Mr. Sayyed Sir, Madam Jayashree Vade and clerk Mr. Rajesh Tarode and others whom I feel to pay my thanks.

I shall always remain grateful to Mr. Malve Sir and Mr. Bhalchandra Thorat (Bhal Graphics) for typing and computerizing my research thesis so neat and clean.

At last with whose righteousness I could get a chance to complete my research thesis, my revered Late Parents (Sumitra Kawre and Dnyaneshwar Kawre) and my Revered mother–in-law Mrs. Panchphula Devi Kale, I keep to their feet my this work.