SCOPES OF STUDY

The findings of this research study shall be useful and helpful for the future researchers as well as to accelerate the speed of prosecution in the courts to provide the justice in time in order to give proper and timely justice to the people. This study will prove an eye opener for Department of Law & Justice as well as Indian Judicial System. It will help in formulation of new laws and provisions of speedy implementation of the same. This research study will also be helpful in improving the system of general administration along with legal system. This study report shall prove helpful in improving the socio-economic status of the people by highlighting the needs of educational reforms and implementation of education for eradication of poverty and life standard of the people living in the society.