LIST OF TABLES

Table I.1 The National Standard of Educational System, Ministry of Education, Department of Teacher Education, Thailand (1983).

Table 1.2 Organigramme of the Ministry of Education, Thailand.

Table 1.3 Organigramme of the Department of Teacher Education, Thailand.

Table 1.4 Organigramme of the United Colleges, Department of Teacher Education.

Table 1.5 Organigramme of the Teacher College, Thailand

Table II.1 Summary of various problems faced during different stages of the project.

Table III.1 Category of the selected colleges, cooperating schools and villages from the eight United Colleges in Thailand

Table III.2 Category of samples from each Teachers College

Table III.3 Numbers of items in each one of the ten aspects

Table III.4 Number of aspects and items in section-3

Table III.5 Distribution of items related to various aspects of the TERD Project.

Table IV.2.1 Perceptions of product personnels of the TURTEP regarding the usefulness of the Project.

Table IV.3.A.1 Perceptions received from Directors regarding the orientation courses provided to student teachers before their practice teaching.

Table IV.3.A.3 Perceptions of the Directors, T.C. staff members, Head-masters, Cooperating Teachers and student teachers regarding the adequacy of course contents.

Table IV.3.D.1 Personal data of Directors of the TERD Project and T.C. staff members involved in the TERD Project.

Table IV.3.D.1 a Teaching experience of Directors, and T.C. staff members involved in the TERD Project.

Table IV.3.D.1 b Experiences of Directors and T.C. staff members in supervising the TERD Project.
Table IV.3.D.1 c Work-load in (hours) per week of Directors and T.C. staff members involved in the TERD Project.

Table IV.3.D.3 Informations received from the T.C. staff members regarding the personnel of the TERD Project.

Table IV.3.D.4 Perceptions of village chiefs and village people regarding the personnel involved in the TERD Project.

Table IV.3.E.2 Informations received from the T.C. staff members regarding the implementation of the TERD Project.

Table IV.3.I.2 Informations received from T.C. staff members regarding the participation of the student teachers in the TERD Project.

Table IV.4.A.1 Perceptions of Directors and T.C. staff members regarding the TERD Project is helpful for Teachers College.

Table IV.4.B.1 Perceptions of Directors, T.C. staff members, School Head-masters, cooperating teachers, and student teachers regarding developmental effects of the TERD Project towards development of rural schools.

Table IV.4.C.1 Responses on developmental effects of the TERD Project regarding various activities which help to develop the rural villages as perceived from seven groups of respondents.

Table IV.4.D.1 Perceptions of Directors, T.C. staff members, Head-masters, cooperating teachers, and student practice teachers regarding the TERD Project is helpful to the student teachers.

Table IV.4.E.1 Problems and limitations in different aspects of the TERD Project as perceived by T.C. staff members, Head-masters, cooperating teachers, and student teachers.