ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am indebted to many in the successful completion of this thesis and also for in my endeavour to achieve academic and intellectual growth. At the very outset, I would like to express my deep sense of gratitude and respect to Prof.(Dr.) V.G.Nandedkar, my guide and Head, Department of Political Science, The M.S. University of Baroda. I thank him for the genuine interest he showed to me with regard to my M.Phil and Doctoral Studies; right from the very beginning, his direction, guidance, constant encouragement and above all his parental affection enabled me to reach the stage of completion of this venture. My gratitude to him is so rich and varied and I can only say "When hearts are full, words are few".

I owe equally to Prof.(Dr.) Thomas Pantham and Prof.(Dr.) D.H. Mohite, both from Department of Political Science, M.S. University of Baroda, for their unfailing encouragement and valuable suggestions throughout the tenure of this study.

I harbour a sense of obligation to Dr.H.C.Shukul, and V.A. Vakil, Readers, Shri Sivanand Patnaik, Shri Amit Dholakia, Shri Thomas George all lecturers in the Department of Political Science, the M.S.University of Baroda, who gratefully supported me through suggestions and constructive criticisms throughout study.

I am thankful to the nonOfficials viz., the M.L.As, District Council Members, Panchayat Committee Members, for helping me to acquire relevant data for my work. At this juncture, I would like to put on record my sincere thanks to Dr. P. A. Varghese, District Medical Officer, Kottayam who introduced me to the source of appropriate data and showed great enthusiasm in my work. My sincere thanks are also due to all Medical Officers in-charge of PHCs, Superintendents of the Taluka Hospitals, District Hospital and all hospital administrators of the private hospitals of the Kottayam district, for their co-operation and unavailing help in the completion of the work. I gratefully acknowledge the officials, knowledgeable persons, clients, social workers in the health field in Kottayam district whose thoughtful interviews enriched the information I collected through the questionnaire.

My heartfelt thanks are to my wife, Jancy for her moral support, constant encouragement and concern for my academic excellence. The words trail behind, when I remember my parents and all family members especially my elder brother Joppachen and family who stood beside me caring and encouraging throughout my academic venture.

Finally, I thank my friends especially from Medical Profession to get the heel of hospital process. I am also obliged to Shri S. P. Sylvester, Reader, Department of English, the M.S. University of Baroda, my friend Saji Thomas, Lecturer, Department of Archeology, M.S. University of Baroda in helping me in the exhausting work of the manuscript and suggestions. The credit for elegant typing goes to Mr. P. G. Cherian.
