I wish to accord my warm and hearty appreciation, deepest sense of regard and gratitude for my guide Professor K.N. Mehta, the head of the Department of Archaeology and Ancient History and Dean, Faculty of Arts, the Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Baroda for his scholastic expert guidance in spite of his busy schedule for the successful completion of the present study.

I am thankful to my teachers Professor A.T.E. Hegde, Dr. S.N. Chowdhary and Dr. (Mrs.) B.S. Srinivasan for their suggestions and advice. I am greatly indebted to Dr. (Mrs.) B.S. Shah for correcting the manuscript of my Thesis as well as offering many valuable suggestions and advice.

I am also grateful to Dr. Nazim-ud-Din Ahmed, Director of Archaeology and Museums, Government of the Peoples' Republic of Bangladesh, Professor Siraj-ul-Islam, Professor A.M. Tarafdar, Dr. Fozia Rahman, Dr. Sadaqa Khan of the Department of Islamic History and Culture, University of Dacca and Dr. A.S.I. Khan, Professor, Islamic History & Culture, Cawnpore College, Cawnpur for their encouragement and inspiration.
I am also thankful to Dr. A.A. Desai, Director of Epigraphy (Arabic & Persian), Archaeological Survey of India for his valuable suggestions in various aspects of the Thesis.

I am also indebted to Mr. B. M. Panda, the Superintending Archaeologist, Archaeological Survey of India, Western Circle for permitting me to have library facilities as well as allowing me to take some photographs. I am thankful to Miss N.B. Noon, the Librarian, Archaeological Survey of India, Western Circle, Baroda, who helped and co-operated with me in collecting information from rare books.

I also feel a sense of gratitude to Mr. C.N. Atri, former Director of Archaeology, Gujarat State for helping me along with his staff during the time of exploration. I am thankful to Mr. J.B. Trivedi and Mr. B.K. Rathod of the Department of Archaeology of Gujarat State for their assistance at the time of exploration.

I owe a debt of gratitude to the Government of India for an award of scholarship without which I could not have completed this work.

My sincere thanks go to Mr. K.J.K. Khatr, Mr. N.K.
Khatr and Mr. A.B. Sharma for preparing beautiful illustrations.
I am also thankful to the other staff of the Department of Archaeology and ancient History, A.S. University of Baroda for helping me whenever I needed.

I am thankful to Mr. K.A. Patel for his neat typing of this thesis.

Last but not the least, I owe great debt to my parents Mr. Md. Mohammd-Din Bokker and Mrs. Sabirunnisa Begum and members of my family for their encouragement for higher studies.
