ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

“Accomplishment of this thesis is the result of almighty blessing of my God, teachers and love of my parents.”

I thank this opportunity and pleasure to thank and acknowledge all those persons who as scientist, colleagues, friends and other, have made indispensable contribution to the existence of my thesis. Further the financial support by Department of Biotechnology, Gov. of India under the sub-project,” Engineering resistance in cucurbits against virus” is thankfully acknowledged.

My foremost gratitude is conveyed to Prof. P. K. Jaiwal, Center for Biotechnology, M.D. University, Rohtak, Haryana for his consent to be my supervisor and for his continuous support, guidance, encouragement and patience throughout my research work. I am proud to say experience in this lab was intellectually exciting and fun, and has energized me to continue in academic research.

Unlike most of the Ph.D. fellows, I have been most fortunate to have a co-supervisor Dr. Bikash Mandal, Senior Scientist, Division of Plant Pathology, Indian Agriculture Research Institute, Pusa campus, New Delhi. With due humility and warmth, I would like to express my deep and sincere gratitude to Dr. Mandal, who willingly gave his consent to accept me as his student at an important stage of my career. His wide knowledge and logical way of thinking have been of great value for me. His belief in me, exposing me to the scientific world at large, and most important for always being like a friend than just a guide, which made things a lot easier. Without his help and guidance I wouldn’t have reached this stage. I truly acknowledge the guidance rendered upon me by him.

I am grateful to Dr. S. K. Gakhar, Director, Centre for Biotechnology, M. D. University, Rohtak for his support and encouragement. I also extend my sincere thanks to Dr. R.K. Jain, Head of Division, Division of Plant Pathology, IARI, Pusa campus, New Delhi for giving me the opportunity and providing facilities in the lab and sanctioning funds required during the course of work.

It’s my great pleasure in expressing my regards and gratitude towards Dr. V.G. Malathi, Emeritus Scientist, Division of Plant Pathology, IARI, New Delhi, for her dexterous guidance, passionate criticism and giving me her blessing.

I owe my sincere gratitude to Dr. Prabhu, Dr. Rajendra Singh, and Dr. Arun Kumar, Phytotron Facility, IARI, New Delhi for helping me in maintaince of viruses in phytotron. I also sincere thanks to Dr. Shelly Praveen, Senior Scientist, Division of Plant Pathology, IARI, New Delhi for her valuable support during thesis writing.

I also owe big thanks to Dr. Padma Ramchandran, Dr. V. K. Barnwal, Dr. K. K. Biswas, Dr. Seema Mandal and Dr. Ranjana Jaiwal for his/her support whenever required and blessing.
I wish to thank Dr. Darshna for being a patient listener all the time during my entire research period, which made my work easier especially at the time the thesis writing. I would also like to extend warmest of heartfelt thanks to Manish Sainger for his ever willing help with sprightly smiles.

I express my thanks to all my senior colleagues, Phanendra Sharma, Manoj Kumar Singh, Veer bahadur Singh, Dr. Dharmendra Pratap, Dr. Anil Kumar Mishra, Priyanka Singh, Dr. Gulshan chabbra and my juniors: Dilip, Poonam, and Anubhuti for their emotional support, encouragement, advices and friendly treatment for their help and support.

I convey my thanks to friends and colleagues; A. Swapana Geetanjali, Alok Kumar, Avijeet Tarafdar, and Shilpi singh, for their help and helped me in some form or other way which made my research work enjoyable and worthy.

To my lab-mates and colleagues Jayantha, yogita, soumya, Dr. Imran, Dr. Suprabha, Jyotsana, Neha, Richa, Vipin, Nandita, Vinutha, Vanita from IARJ and Lalita, Manju, Nirmal, Savita, Sanjay and Chetan from Rohtak, I am thankful to all of you for fun and immense support and ever ready help.

The small but useful helps contributed by the technical and non-technical staff cannot be ignored. I thank them all for their assistance especially, Jitendra, Sanjeet Nankut and Thakur jee for their help and co-operation in lab and glasshouse maintenance.

The moral support, love and care given by my Grandmother Rama Devi, Uncle Sri Chandra Bhushan Prasad, Aunty Kiran Devi, elder brother Mr. Mukesh Kumar, and Bhabhi, Mrs. Rani cannot be expressed in words. Last but not the least, I thank with deep respect and reverence, my all family members who have always stood by me as strong pillars, supporting and encouraging me emotionally and mentally.

I would also like to especially thank my loving wife Puja for her love, patience and support given to me all the time. Thanks for being there always.

Once again I thank Almighty for bestowing me with confidence, patience and will power to move on always and all these persons to accomplish the thesis work.

Not everyone is mentioned, but none is forgotten.
