ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First and foremost, I thank Almighty Allah for His mercy and benevolence.

There are countless debts and favours in completion of this work that can never be adequately remitted. Thanks giving and gratitude tend to be only a token gesture, yet most appropriate.

Knowing where to start thanking people can be difficult, but with this thesis it’s not. First and foremost, I would like to acknowledge the selfless efforts of my revered teacher, Late Professor Abdul Baqui under whose supervision, present study was initiated. I can not forget his efforts which he put in for the smooth functioning of this research work. Unfortunately he left us half way, but his foresight helped me to take this project to its logical conclusion. Professor Baqui is no more but the path which he showed will always guide me in future endeavours.

My heart felt thanks goes to my guide Dr. Fayaz Ahmad, Reader, P. G. Department of Zoology, University of Kashmir, whose supervision and guidance made it possible to complete the set goal. The amount of work and effort he put in was just amazing, and the final product is definitely better, thanks to his input into the project.

I express gratitude from my heart to my co-supervisor Dr. Majidah Rashid, Lecturer, P. G. Department of Zoology, University of Kashmir, for her encouraging, meritorious guidance and supervision at every step of the present study.

My Thanks are due to Prof. R. C. Bhagat, Head, P. G. Department of Zoology, University of Kashmir for providing the required facilities.

I am highly thankful to Prof. M.Z. Chishti, Department of Zoology for his encouragement, valuable suggestions and access to his personal valuable literature.

My special thanks are due to my friend Mr. Riyaz Ahmad Shah and Mudasir Ahmad Raina for their competent advice, enthusiastic support and constant helpfulness during the studies.

My warmest and special thanks are due to my friends especially, Mr. Showkat Ahmad Wani and Mr. Zubair Ahmad Dar for the company they provided me during the present study.

I will be failing in my duties, if I don’t acknowledge the Technical & Non-technical staff of the department for their cooperation during this study.

There are a whole bunch of folks who I have not mentioned – people who have worked anonymously in the background – I appreciate their valuable contribution to this title.

Last but not least I am indebted to my family for their support and affection that infused the driving force in me.
