Acknowledgements

It is my privilege to express my sincere gratitude to my respected and esteemed research supervisor Dr. N. K. Lokanath, Professor, Department of Studies in Physics, University of Mysore, Manasagangotri, Mysore, for giving me an excellent guidance, valuable suggestions and sharing intellectual thoughts. He was very patient, kind and understanding. I am highly indebted for him for his valuable presence which helped me in all the time of my research work and to write this thesis successfully.

My sincere and honest thanks to Dr. M. A. Sridhar, Professor, Department of Studies in Physics, University of Mysore, Mysore, for his constant help, support and encouragement.

I am indebted to Prof. J. Shashidhara Prasad, the Honorable Vice-Chancellor, Sri Satya Sai Institute of Higher Learning, for his support and encouragement.

I heartily thank Prof. R. Somashekar, the Chairperson of the Department of Studies in Physics, who has supported me directly or indirectly during the course of my research work.

I profoundly thank the successive Chairpersons of the department of studies in Physics, Prof. T. K. Umesh, Prof. L. Paramesh and Prof. C. Ranganathaiah who have supported me directly or indirectly during the course of my research work.

I also express my sincere gratitude to Prof. K. S. Rangappa, Honorable Vice-Chancellor, University of Mysore, Mysore, and Dr. G. K. Nagaraja, Department of Post Graduate Studies in Chemistry, Mangalore University, Mangalore, for providing the samples and encouraging me to carry out the research work.

I would like to thank the Department of Science and Technology under the project SP/I2/FOO/93, University of Mysore, Mysore, for providing me an opportunity to use the single crystal X-ray diffractometer facility.
I also express my thanks to Dr. S. Naveen, Scientist, Institution of Excellence, University of Mysore and my research colleagues, S. Madan Kumar, M. Manjula, Mohan Kumar, C. S. Dileep, N. Latha Rani and B. C. Manjunath for their constant help and cooperation during the course of research work.

I sincerely thank all the teaching and non-teaching staff of the Department of Studies in Physics, University of Mysore, Mysore, for their kind support.

I extend my sincere thanks to all who have stretched their valuable assistance directly or indirectly during the course of my research work.
