ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is my proud privilege to express my gratitude and indebtedness to my Supervisors Prof. B.S. Kaith, Dr. Susheel Kalia and Dr. Deepak Pathania for their guidance, continuous encouragement and sagious advice throughout the course of my research work. Their keen sense of scientific temperament was a source of inspiration to me which could materialize only due to their mature counsel, constructive suggestions and honest criticism. I have been blessed by their continuous moral support, invaluable inputs and suggestions when I needed the most. Indeed, without their technical guidance, significant contribution and moral support, the present work would never have seen the light of the day.

In particular, I wish to express my deep sense of gratitude to my Supervisor, Prof. B.S. Kaith for his invaluable guidance, time, support and knowledge dedicated in my research work. He is one of the best teacher, who always helping me to wake up a strong person inside me and for his “words and decisions” which made me stronger in my academic life.

I would like to acknowledge Vice Chancellor and Faculty and administrative Members of Shoolini University, Solan for their useful suggestions, support, blessings and good academic environment to pursue the work at different places without any restriction which enables me in the right directions. It is my great pleasure to thank all my dear friends and Ph. D Scholars of Chemistry and Physics Department for helping me get through the difficult time and for all emotional support, entertainment and caring they provided.

I also take this opportunity to thank the Director and especially to the Head of Chemistry Department, Dr. B. R. Ambedkar National Institute of Technology (NIT), Jalandhar for giving me the opportunity to work in their laboratories and providing me with all sorts of facilities. I am also thankful to all Faculty Members, all seniors and Lab mates of Chemistry Department of NITJ, who have helped me and supported me in various ways during my research work.

I am thankful to RSIC, Panjab University, IIT Ropar and Department of Civil, Chemical Environmental and Material Engineering, University of Bologna, Italy for characterizing samples.
I want to thank specially to my elder brother, Mr. Manish Sharma for their endless care and limitless support during this work. Every time when I needed help, he was there for me to help me.

It is the great privilege to express my deep sense of gratitude and thanks to my In-Laws family, for their unconditional support, help and motivation throughout this work. I would like to be thankful of all the opportunities that they sent on my way. My heartfelt gratitude goes to Mr. Sudarshan Sharma (Father) and Mrs. Suman Sharma (Mother) for their advice, kindness and generous support. A special thanks to my younger brother, Sumit Sharma.

My deepest gratitude goes to the people who mean world to me, my lovely family for their motivation, continuous support and prayers. Without their love, I was not able to finish this work. I dedicate this thesis to my dear parents who showed me the correct path in my life, supported me with endless love and affection and built confidence in me. They were there for me everytime in my “ups and downs” and their words encouraged me a lot to achieve my goal and realize my dreams. My father, Mr. Chander Shekher Sharma, is the person who always supported me for my educational decisions since I was a child. My mother, Mrs. Raj Sharma, is the one who raised me with her endless love. It would not have been possible to accomplish this thesis without them. I don’t imagine a life without their love and blessings. Thank you mom and dad for showing faith in me and giving me liberty to choose what I desired. My brothers (Mr. Vivek Sharma and Mr. Vikas Sharma) and bhabhi (Mrs. Chandrika Sharma and Mrs. Priyanka Sharma) thanks to you for being supportive and caring. A special thanks to my Grandfather, Mr. Sant Ram Sharma. I consider myself the luckiest in the world to have such a supportive family, standing behind me with their love and support. To all of you, thanks for always being there for me.

At the end, I would like to express great appreciations to my beloved husband Mr. Sumant Sharma, is one who gave me best support that no one else can give. Words would not be sufficed for all of the sacrifices that he had made on my behalf. His prayer for me was what sustained me so far. Thank you for being a better half of my life.

I wish I could mention each individually. I am thankful to all those who directly or indirectly contributed in this work and because of whom this work experience and wonderful journey shall remain everlasting and cherished forever in my sweet memories.

Every effort is motivated by an ambition and all ambitions are backed by the strength given by God, a constant source of positive energy. Words are short to express my deep gratitude to Most Gracious Almighty for His Divine hidden presence, help and strength throughout my life.

Thanks to all of you!
