Research studies are essentially co-operative enterprises. Though I may be responsible for undertaking a study individually, but is dependent on others for ideas, criticism and support.

The present study was completed under the supervision of my guide, Dr. Nikhil Zaveri, Director & Principal, SEMCOM college, Sardar Patel University, who not only provided me invaluable guidance, critical comments and suggestions but also improved the methodology, style and substance of the study. I am extremely grateful for his support.

I am indebted to Dr Shailesh Gandhi, Faculty, IIM, Ahmedabad, Dr P.K.Priyan, Reader, MBA Department, Sardar Patel University and Shri R.M. Kapadia, Retired Director Finance, Alembic Limited, Vadodara. I extend my hearty thanks to these persons, who have helped me in various ways providing me constructive inputs and critical evaluation.

Further more, I am extremely grateful to many Finance Managers and Controllers of various companies, who generously allowed me to use their company data and also provided valuable feedback for my questionnaire.

I express my deep appreciation and thank to those colleagues whose insightful comments and suggestions and support were invaluable to me during this research work. I am indeed fortunate and privileged to work with them:
I am indeed thankful to my husband, Kiran, who has always been a source of incessant motivation and has always extended unstinted support to me in completing this research work. I am also grateful to my children, Aditya and Aastha, for their endurance through several months that I spent completing this research work.

Finally, I thank the Almighty for his divine blessings.
