Acknowledgements

I would like to express my deep gratitude to my Research guide Dr. Vibhuti Patel for her confidence, support, invaluable guidance and assistance given to me during my study and kept me motivated and focused to complete my dissertation.

A great many people family and friends helped make my thesis possible.

I would like to thank my parents and in-laws for their love, support and encouragement. Special thanks to my husband and daughter whose support helped me overcome many difficulties and for accompanying me to Sindhudurg happily undertaking road trips.

I would like to thank Dr. Bhosle from Lanja who helped me in drafting my questionnaire in Marathi and Ms. Madhura for typing my Marathi Questionnaire.

A warm thank you goes out to the people of Sindhudurg. I would particularly like to thank Mr. Prassana Mayekar for opening up their home to me at Malvan, Mr. Suresh Ladoji Sawant for giving me his flat to stay in Vengurla and Mr. Arun Kudalkar for giving me the opportunity to stay and see the display of art and craft of Sindhudurg at Shilpgram in Sawantwadi.

I am greatly indebted to my Uncle Suryanarayanan and Mr. Krishnakumar for proof reading my thesis.

Special thanks to the people of Sindhudurg who welcomed me into their homes and taught me about their lifestyle. The people of Malvan, Vengurla and Sawantwadi deserve extra credit for housing and feeding me throughout the fieldwork period and answering my barrage of unending questions. Their trust and kindness is greatly appreciated and left me with profound impression on the people.

I would like to extend my heartfelt appreciation to my Principal, Colleagues and Management of Vivek College of Commerce for their kind assistance and contributions to successful completion of my thesis.

Thanks, to all those whom I talked over the course of my study. I will not forget the help I received from each one of you.
