

FOREWORD

The present work ‘Development of temple architecture in southern Karnataka (with special reference to Bangalore and Kolar Districts) is a study undertaken by me, as a Research Fellow in the department of Ancient History and Archaeology, University of Mysore, Mysore, under the able guidance of Professor M.S. Krishna Murthy. I owe to him for the inception of the idea and courage to undertake this task. I take this opportunity to convey my humble regards to Dr. M.S. Krishna Murthy. Words fail to express my gratitude adequately for his generosity in providing me all the resource material and facilitating my work through his continuous scholarly guidance.

I am thankful to Dr. Rangaraju, Chairman, Department of Ancient History and Archaeology, Prof. M.V. Krishnappa, Prof. M.P. Mahadevaiah. During the course of my work, I received valuable suggestions and guidance from Srimat Swami Harshanandaji Maharaj, the President of Ramakrishna Math, Bangalore and Srimat Swami Raghaveshanandaji Maharaj, the Secretary, Ramakrishna Mission Ashram, Belgaum. I take this opportunity to offer my humble pranams to the Swamijis and other inmates of the Ashram. My sincere thanks to Dr. K.N. Sridhar for his encouragement and inspiration to complete this work successfully.

I am indebted to the veteran orientalist and Sanskrit scholars, Prof. Ramaswamy Iyengar, Dr. G. Jnanananda and Vidwan Ganapathi Shastri, Agama Professor, Sanskrit College, Bangalore, for their continuous guidance and suggestions.

I am thankful to Dr. Pushpalatha Krishnamurthy for examining the entire manuscript and typed material before it went for final print. My respectful gratitude to her for helping me with all my needs during my long stay at Mysore.

I received many friendly services from my talented friends in completing this work, but for which it would have been impossible for me to complete this work. Dr. Aruni, Assistant Director, I.C.H.R. Bangalore and Mr. Sangappa, Mr. Sannappa, Mrs. Mangamma the staff of the I.C.H.R, and others have been kind and helpful to me. My sincere thanks to all staff members of Mythic Society Library and Dr. Suryanath Kamat. I wish to convey my regards to Mr. G. Manoj, Mr. Shelva Pillai Iyengar, Smt. Padmashri and Smt. Prasanna Kumari.

I owe my gratitude to all the members of Deepthi Printers. My special thanks to Mr. B.K. Nagesh, Mr. J. Mariyappa, Kumari H.Bhanumati, Smt. Sridevi, Mr. B. Santosh, Mr. Mahesh, Mr. Suresh and Kumari Kavitha for their kind co-operation and continuous support in preparing this work.

I thank the Institutions and priests of the temples involved in my work, staff of the A.S.I of the concerned monuments for facilitating me in the study of monuments and to take photographs.

I wish to take this opportunity to acknowledge the continuous support, guidance and inspiration provided by all members of my family - my father, Late, B.M. Venkataramanappa, my mother, Smt. Sarojamma, my husband Mr. Manjunath, my sister and brothers, Ms. Rukmini, Mr. Bhaskar and Mr. Jagannath for all the encouragement during the course of my research. My due love to my dear son Master Rakhil for being there through out the preparation of this work.

Place: Mysore

V. Anuradha

Date: