ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

All through this research work, I have worked with a great number of people whose contribution in assorted ways to the research and the making of this thesis deserved special mention. It is a pleasure to convey my gratitude to them all in my humble acknowledgment.

In the first place, I would like to record my gratitude to Dr. Y.S. Siddegowda, Professor, Department of Studies in Social Work, University of Mysore, Manasagangotri, Mysore for his supervision, advice, and guidance from the very early stage of this research as well as giving me extraordinary experiences throughout the work. Above all and the most needed, he provided me unflinching encouragement and support in various ways. His truly scientist intuition has made him as a constant oasis of ideas and passions in science, which exceptionally inspire and enrich my growth as a student, a researcher and a scientist want to be. I am indebted to him more than he knows.

I gratefully acknowledge Prof. I.A. Sharriff for his advice and crucial contribution, which made him a backbone of this research and so to this thesis. His involvement with his originality has triggered and nourished my intellectual maturity.

I express my respectful gratitude to Shri. CA. A. Raghavendra Rao, President, Srinivas Group of Colleges, Mangalore for his continuous support and inspiration and also I thank specially Shri. A. Srinivas Rao, Vice-President, Srinivas Group of Colleges, Mangalore and Smt.D.Shashikala Rao, Secretary, Srinivas Group of Colleges, Mangalore for their motivation.

I wholeheartedly express my thanks to all my respected teachers who have inspired me to carry out this research work and to embark me in my profession.

I convey my sincere gratitude to Mr. Ramesh Sundaram, Statistical Analyst – II and Mr. V. Rajaram, Senior Statistical Analyst – I, Novartis Healthcare Pvt. Ltd., Hyderabad for their support in statistical analysis of the data.

It is my pleasure to pay tribute to all the parents and children who had participated in this study and without whom the study would not have been completed successfully.
My special thanks go to all my friends who had directly and indirectly encouraged me throughout this study.

My father Shri. K. Sundaram, my mother Smt. S. Mallika, my wife Mrs. K. Rajeswari, my daughter Baby. B. Saadana, and all my family members deserve special mention for their consistent support and prayers.

Finally, I would like to thank everybody who was important to the successful realization of this thesis, as well as expressing my apology that I could not mention personally one by one.
