ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The completion of doctoral theses necessitates more than academic rigor. It culminates in the support of many individuals in one's life, and I would be thoughtless if I didn't stop and reflect upon those people - who have offered support and encouragement to complete my doctoral studies. The mental, emotional, physical endurance and demands of a doctoral programme on an individual combined with routine demands of life can be overwhelming at times. An enthusiastic and competent support group can make a difference between completing a doctoral programme and giving up along the way. I am filled with enormous appreciation for my support group that gave me the strength to complete the process - my Guide and my family members.

I express my deep gratitude to my Guide Dr Sanjay S Kaptan because he is the epitome of professionalism and has been an inspiration and always kept me focused toward the goal. His insightful micro lessons on how to go about completing the chapters have led to the writing and completion of dissertation above any other factors. He will always be remembered by me not only for his knowledge and expertise but also for his continuous support and encouragement all through the effort. It was only because of his exceptional tutelage that my dream has come true.
