ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It is an immense pleasure for me to acknowledge my deep gratitude towards all my esteemed teachers, friends and all those who have directly and indirectly helped me in the completion of my Ph.D. thesis, for all the valuable assistance I have received from them.

I am under a special debt of gratitude to my teacher and guide Prof. (Dr.) H. K. Nagaraja, Visiting Professor of Law, National Law School of India University, Bangalore, for his scholarly guidance, timely suggestions and encouragement, which have been instrumental in the completion of this research work. It has been a pleasure working under such a down-to-earth scholar of international law. I express limitless thanks to him for his constant support in the pursuance of my Ph.D. work.

My deep respect and gratitude are due to my teachers, Prof. (Dr.) P. Ishwara Bhat, Prof. (Dr.) C. Basavaraju, Dr. M. D. Krishna and Dr. Maruthi T. R., Department of Studies in Law, University of Mysore, for their wholehearted support in the completion of this work. I acknowledge profound influence of all of them on my academic career.

I express my sincere thanks to all space law scholars, whose valuable suggestions have facilitated the successful completion of the present work. My special thanks to Indian Space Research Organization (ISRO) and Late Dr. Rajeev Lochan, Former Scientific Secretary, ISRO, for the valuable assistance rendered during the course of my research.

I wish to thank the library authorities of Indian Society of International Law, New Delhi, Indian Law Institute, New Delhi, Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi, Indian Space Research Organization, Bangalore, National Law School of India University, Bangalore, National University of Juridical Sciences, Kolkata and University of Mysore for permitting me to make use of their libraries.
Despite the knowledge of the fact that I would fall short of the words in my dictionary to express thanks to my family members, including the one waiting to join, I take this opportunity to thank them for their wholehearted support in the course of my work. I am doubly blessed to be the recipient of their limitless love and affection.

My special thanks are due to my friends, Ashith, Nasir, Nagesh, Sumitha, Vidya and Preethi, for being the pillars of my strength in times of need.

Place: Mysore

Date: 05 - 04 - 2008

(Sandeepa Bhat B.)