

VITAE

Mr. P. SUDHAKARA RAO was born on 15th March, 1954 at Morampudy, Andhra Pradesh, India.

He received the B.E. degree in Electronics and Communications in the year 1978 from Mysore University, India and the post graduate degree in Electronics in the year 1989 from Madras Institute of Technology (MIT), Anna University, Chennai, India.

He is actively involved in research for the process control instrumentation and machine vision technology and has designed and developed a few systems for paper, leather and food processing industries. His present research interests include image processing and machine vision technology for food and other agro based industries.

Since 1979, he has been with Central Electronics Engineering Research Institute [CEERI], Chennai Centre, Council of Scientific and Industrial Research [CSIR], India and presently working as Deputy Director.