“Lord, fill the Muslim’s heart with a desire so fervent
That it will set his heart aflame and stir his soul.”
~Alama Iqbal

All praise to Allah Most Gracious, Most Merciful, for blessing me with an able mind and body to learn and to work in the field of forestry so close to nature that the faith in supernaturalism is felt within.

Though only my name appears on the cover of this thesis, a great many people have contributed to its production. I owe my gratitude to all those people who have made this thesis possible and because of whom my research experience has been one that I will cherish forever.

Words are insufficient to circumscribe the effusive feelings of gratitude and regards which I owe to my learned supervisor Dr. Dinesh Kumar. I have been amazingly fortunate to have an advisor who gave me the freedom to explore on my own, and at the same time the guidance to recover when my steps faltered. Sir taught me how to question thoughts and express ideas. His patience and support helped me overcome many crisis situations and finish this thesis. Needless to emphasize that such research topic can be initiated by scientists like him only.

I am bereft of words to acknowledge my thanks to Dr. P. P. Bhojvaid, Director, F.R.I., and Dr. A. K. Tripathi, Registrar, F.R.I. University for permitting me to take up this assignment and providing necessary facilities during the course of research.

I am also grateful to the former Head, Silviculture Division Dr. V.R.R. Singh, for his support, cooperation, encouragement, and for providing all possible facilities for smooth execution of various experiments of my research study. This trend was continued by successive Heads of Silviculture Division viz. Mr. A.S. Rawat, Dr. R.K. Aima and now Mr. Kunal Sathyarthi, for which I am highly obliged to them.
I am also indebted to the Research Advisory Committee (RAC), Dr. N.S. Bisht, Chairman, Mr. M.P. Singh, Dr. P.S. Rawat and Mr. Raman Nautiyal, (Expert Member’s) for their insightful comments and constructive criticisms at different stages of my research which were thought-provoking and they helped me focus my ideas. I am grateful to them for holding me to a high research standard and enforcing strict validations for each research result, and thus teaching me how to do research work.

I would like to acknowledge Dr. Vineet Kumar, Dr. Manisha Thapliyal, Dr. Ombir Singh, Dr Nava Bahar and Dr. Sumer Chandra for numerous discussions and lectures on related topics that helped me improve my knowledge in the area.

My sincere thanks are due to Mr. Satya Prakash, Mr. Sharma, Mr, Naithani and Upadhay ji for their kind help during the study period. I am also thankful to the nursery staff who maintained all the field plots so efficiently that I never had to worry about it. I don’t envy their job. I feel that they are the greatest nursery administrators in the world. Dharamjeet, Ram Lal, Sachin, Roshan and the rest of the team!

Many friends have helped me stay sane through these difficult years. Their support and care helped me overcome setbacks and stay focused on my research study. I greatly value their friendship and I deeply appreciate their belief in me, particularly Isha, Terra, Anshul, Dipi, Ulsheeda, Yasir and John.

Words are not enough to all my Friends and Colleagues for their help and cooperation in one way or the other, especially Sanjay, Kshitij, Harish, Tahir, Mamit, Abhishek, Satya, Mamadou ly, Mudasir, Falguni, Tanveer, Haseeb, Mania, C.P.Singh, Arjun, Chandrakant, Kaniqa, Sona and Gurveen for moral support during this study.

Most importantly, none of this would have been possible without the love and patience of my family. My immediate family, to whom this dissertation is dedicated to, has been a constant source of love, concern, support and strength all these years. I would like to express my heart-felt gratitude to my family. My extended family has aided and encouraged me throughout this endeavor. I have to give a special mention for the support given by my elder Brother and Sister.

I take this opportunity to think about and thank all those who helped me for my welfare.
