Acknowledgments

I would not have been able to complete my Ph.D. study without the advice, assistance, understanding and encouragement of a number of people. I would like to gratefully and sincerely acknowledge their guidance, assistance and support. First of all, I am thankful to Teerthanker Mahaveer Institute of Management & Technology (TMIMT), Teerthanker Mahaveer University (TMU), for the opportunity given to me to initiate and complete this doctoral work. I am grateful to a number of persons associated with TMU, especially- Chancellor Shri Suresh Jain, Group Vice Chairman Shri Manish Jain, Vice Chancellor Prof. Rakesh Kr. Mudgal, Principal, TMIMT Prof. Vipin Jain, Dy. Registrar Mr. J.P. Bansal and Ph.D. research coordinator Dr. Rajeev Verma. I am grateful and indebted to everybody associated with TMU and TMIMT for the support and encouragement in completing my research.

The most important individuals I want to thank are my supervisors, Prof. Ajay Kr. Garg and Prof. Rakesh Kr. Mudgal. I would like to say ‘thank you’ to them for their valuable advice and generous guidance about study and many more valuable aspects during the process of completing this thesis. I have always received support from them that have kept me on the right track.

Furthermore, I would like to thank all of the faculties and staff at TMIMT and TMU who gave me a lot of support, assistance and understanding. I am grateful to the members of the CRC/DRC for their kindness in guiding and evaluating my work in the course of my Ph.D. I would also like to thank the administrative staff, finance department and library staff members for supporting me willingly in completing the PhD research work. Significantly, I would also like to thank those people who volunteered their time and input during the pilot test and main survey.

I am deeply grateful to my dear father Late Shri Hemanta Kumar Banerjee, Ex Registrar, Regional Engineering College (now NIT), Durgapur, my mother Smt. Sabita Banerjee, who gave me continuous encouragement to enroll and complete the PhD program. Most of all, my greatest debt of gratitude is to my wife, Nibedita Banerjee and my daughter Nayanika Banerjee, who were enjoying and sharing with me all happiness and difficulties during my doctoral study. I am also grateful to my friend Dr. Indranil Bose, who gave me suggestions and advice during my research work.

It has been a long journey, and I have grown in so many ways. I would like to say ‘thank you’ again for the involvement of everyone who has helped me to complete this doctoral dissertation.
