ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I cannot bring myself to believe that this all-too brief note of thanks reflects my deep sense of gratitude in full measure, to those who are instrumental for the successful conduct and completion of my doctoral thesis.

I am immensely grateful to my research supervisor Prof. Dr. (Mrs.) Hemalatha Devi, Head & Dean, Faculty of Law, P.G. Department of Law, Chairperson, Board of Studies in Law (combined), S.V. University, Tirupati, who inspired and guided me in to refreshingly new realms of research entitled “Contribution of Justice P.N. Bhagwati to the Constitutional Developments in India – A Study”.

Coming as she does from an illustrious line of legal academicians, Prof. Hemalatha Devi is a teacher of Law par excellence and had impressive innings in the noble calling of teaching and research. Her scholarship is not cribbed and cooped to ivory towers of traditional curriculum. It has amazing breadth and sweep in terms of intellectual eminence. I am fortunate to be her student in Ph.D. Degree course.

She had regular rendezvous with me and imposed rigorous of academic discipline. As a committed research supervisor, she put her shoulder to the wheel and fastidiously planned the broad contours of my research problem and took me to the rare heights of sublimated imagination and insights and ignited sparks of creative endeavour in new dimensions of research in Constitutional Law. It was quite expedient that I had to place very heavy indent on her precious time and often trespassing her busy official schedule, yet she has been condescendingly kind enough to tide my research work and concluded the stupendous task on time.
I pay my respectful homage to late Dr. N. VenkataSubbaiah, Professor of Civil Engineering (Environmental) and an eminent environmentalist of international repute, S.V. University College of Engineering, Tirupati.

My thanks are due to Prof. V.R.C. Krishnaiah, M.A., M.Com., M.L., Ph.D., former Head P.G. Dept of Law, Incharge Head of Human Rights and Social Development, S.V. University, Sri. M. Sudarsana Reddy, M.L., Rtd. Asst. Professor, Dr. T. Sitakumari, M.L., Ph.D., Reader, Mr. Adinarayana, M.A., M.L., Asst. Professor, P.G. Dept of Law and Mr. Jyothimoorthy, M.A., B.L., Advocate, Tirupati and I thank Mrs. Aruna Kumari, Sri. K. Ramachandra Reddy, and Mrs. Suseela who helped me in the process of Office transactions right from registration to submission of this thesis.

I immensely remember on this occasion, my loving Dad Sri. Kanipakam Munirathnam, B.com., Rtd, A.O. (D.M & H.O.) from whom I learnt dedication and sincerity in work and life. And also who laid a strong foundation of humanistic views in me and have been guiding spirit to me and my children to lead a meaningful life.

My mother Smt. Kanipakam Jayamma who has been the guiding spirit of patience, kindness and hard work so that I can stand here.

Special thanks to my husband Sri M. Devarajulu, who is keen on my research pursuits and my loving children Brahmanapalle Haripriya (MBBS) and Vishnupriya. They are a constant source of energy and inspiration throughout my research pursuits. Without their encouragement, participation, coordination and timely support I could not complete this research. Especially my younger daughter Chi.D. Vishnupriya for her cooperation and assistance in preparing my thesis.
My hearty thanks to my younger brothers Mr. K. Murali, B.Tech., and especially Mr. K. Mohan, M.Tech., who gave me constant encouragement for timely submission and my elder sisters' children Umapiya, Sivapriya (MBBS); Vikram (B.Pharm.) and Srikanth and my aunt G. Annapoorna.

I thank the Librarien and the Library staff, especially the Digital library staff of Sri Venkateswara University, Tirupati, and the library staff of Osmania University & NALSAR Law University of Hyderabad for their help. I thank Dr. R.D VijaySekhar, Ph.D., Principal, Anantha College of Law and Doctor Babu incharge of Anantha Law College Library, Tirupathi and Library staff of SPMVV, Tirupathi who provided me library facilities.

Finally, I thank Miss Geethanjali, Mr. Subramanyam, Mr. Ameer and Mr. Reddy Prasad typist who helped me in processing the work on time.
