ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I have great pleasure in sincerely acknowledging the guidance, suggestions, encouragement and assistance which I have received from a number of persons during the preparation of this thesis.

First and foremost, I am deeply grateful to my Research Supervisor Dr.P.N.Naidu, Associate Professor and Head, Department of Ancient Indian History, Culture and Archaeology, Sri Venkateswara University, Tirupati, for suggesting to me this topic and giving me valuable guidance throughout the period of this study besides lending me the required negatives of the photographs. I take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks and gratitude to him.

I am thankful to Prof. B. Rajendra Prasad and Dr.K.P.Rao, Assistant Professor, for their encouragement.

I am really indebted to Sri. N.R.V. Pradad, Director, Department of Archaeology and Museums, Government of Andhra Pradesh, for having kindly permitted me to take photographs inside temples and museums in Andhra Pradesh. I am also thankful to Sri J.L.V.Sadananda Rao, Sri. Govinda Reddy, Dr.G.Jawaharlal and Smt.Jayaprada, Registering Officers of the Archaeological Museums at Tirupati, Vijayawada, Nellore, Guntur and Anantapur, for their cooperation during my field work.

I express my gratitude to the Indian Council of Historical Research, New Delhi, for sanctioning me the study and travel grant to complete my filed work. The authorities of American Institute of Indian Studies, Varanasi, have kindly supplied me some required photographs. I am thankful to them also.

I owe a special debt to my parents and to my brother, Sri.A.Ramesh for their help and encouragement in various ways for the completion of this research work.

Finally, I am thankful to Sri K.Muralikrishna, non-teaching staff, Dept.of AIHC & Archaeology and Sri. S.Anand Babu, Director, MANJU GRAPHICS who typed my thesis with special care and neat execution.

TIRUPATI
DATE 14-12-1998

(A.RAMADASU)