

P R E F A C E

The present work is devoted to an intensive study of the Brahmanical Images found on monuments or scattered in Chittor Fort and some other important places of Mewar. Its scope has been restricted to the images of Chittor Fort and some other important places of Mewar to make the detailed account of most of the major and minor Brahmanical deities possible. The material presented here, undoubtedly, explores a new ground and opens a new vista for further investigation and research.

No amount of words can adequately express my deep sense of gratitude that I owe to my esteemed teacher, the Late Dr. A. R. G. Tiwari, Rtd. Head of the Post Graduate Department of History, Sardar Patel University, Vallabh Vidyanagar, whose constant guidance, able supervision, exacting standard of scholarship and sympathetic encouragement made it possible for me to give the work the present form. Soon after the submission of the synopsis, Dr. Tiwari passed away and that was the time needed vital guidance. And this emerged from the present Guide Prof. Dr.G.D.Shukla, Head, P.G.Department of History, S.P.University, Vallabh Vidyanagar. During the concluding part of the study, the expert guidance from Prof. Dr.Shukla encouraged and inspired me to carry out this work to a successful completion. I owe a tremendous debt of gratitude to him.

Grateful thanks are due to Shri R.M.Desai, M.Sc., M.Phil., for his help in the photography work. I am indebted to Dr.S.K.Bhowmik, Director of Museums, Gujarat State, for permitting me to undertake this research and for his interest in my work which has never fluctuated. My thanks must go to the authorities and librarians of the Baroda Museum, the M.S.University of Baroda, the Oriental Institute, Baroda, Sardar Patel University, Vallabh Vidyanagar, Desai C.M. Arts & Commerce College, Virangam, B.N. College, Udaipur, the Archaeological Survey of India, Western Circle, Baroda for providing me books and materials as and when required. I am also thankful to the Vice-Chancellor and the Registrar of the S.P.University, Prof. Dr.J.M.Patel (Shekhadiwala), Dr.M.R.Patel, Dr.R.S.Sharma, Shri Nandan Shastri and the members of the staff of the S.P.University and P.G.Department of History, Vallabh Vidyanagar, for extending their help in the present study.

I am thankful to the authorities of ASI, Western Circle, Baroda, Department of Archaeology and Museums, Rajasthan (Udaipur, Ayad, Chittor Fort, Jaipur, Ajmer & Abu), M.B.College Museum, Udaipur, Baroda Museum for providing me some of the photographs included in the present research work. Some of the illustrations published by the different authorities have been presented in this study and thanks are extended to them.

I owe special thanks to Prof. Dr.S.G.Kantawala, Director, Oriental Institute, Baroda, Shri A.K.Shastrri, Dy. Superintending Archaeologist, ASI, Western Circle, Baroda, Dr.Mudrika Jani and Dr. G.M.Oza, Mrs. Indira Mafat, Prof. Dr.S.K.Patel, Shri Natoo Panchal, for their inspiration and help especially in the translation and interpretation of the Sanskrit texts in context of the present study.

Right from my formative years in the academic field, the valuable encouragement and constant care accompanied with me from my parents, elder brothers, members of my family and of course from my wife Smt. Rajeshwari Thakkar, B.A, LL.B, and the outcome is the preparation of this doctoral thesis. I thank them sincerely.

Mr. Sheth rendered help in typing. He deserves my gratitude.

8/12/86
Vallabh Vidyanagar

R. J. Thakkar
(Rameshchandra J. Thakkar)