CONTENTS

CHAPTER ONE: INTRODUCTION

1.1. Stages in consumer socialization
1.2. Definition of Consumer Education
1.3. Consumer education a catalyst to help consumers
1.4. Role of educational technology in effectiveness of teaching
1.5. Significance of the present study
1.6. Research Aims

CHAPTER TWO: REVIEW OF LITERATURE

2.1. Consumerism and Consumer Movements.
2.2. Need for Consumer protection and Redressal activities in India.
2.3. Consumer legislation
2.4. Children as consumer
2.5. Children, commercial media and Consumer Education.
2.6. Covet for consumer education.
2.7. Educational technology and teaching of consumer education.
2.8. Consumer education in other countries.

CHAPTER THREE: METHODOLOGY

3.1. Research design
3.1.1. Literature search
3.1.2. Search for the sample
3.1.3. Research design
3.1.4. Sample, sampling procedure & sample size.
3.1.5. Development of intervention program
3.1.6. Data collection, analysis measurement and interpretation.
3.2. limitation of study
3.3. Hypothesis

CHAPTER FOUR: RESULTS AND DISCUSSION

4.1. Background Information Of Respondents
4.2. Assessment Of Awareness Level Regarding Consumerism Among The Respondents.
4.3. Development Of Intervention Programme.
4.5. Assessment Of Enhancement In Level Of Awareness Regarding Consumerism Among The Respondents
4.6. Testing Of Hypothesis

CHAPTER FIVE: SUMMARY, CONCLUSION & RECOMMENDATIONS

5.1. Summary
5.2. Conclusion
5.3. Implication of the study
5.4. Recommendations

BIBLIOGRAPHY

APPENDICES
- Interview Schedule
- Permission letter for data collection
- Invitation letter for content validation
- Intervention schedule
- Reliability test
- Paired t-test
- Independent t-test
- Analysis of variance
- Test of LSD
- Content of intervention program.

ABSTRACT