ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Ph.D. is a degree in which research work has to be carried out. For a part time Ph.D. scholar it would be so difficult to work for it without the help of other people. Quite obviously, I have received help from my family members, friends, colleagues, organizations, researchers and authors. I sincerely wish to thank one and all for the help extended by them.

I thank my guide Dr. P.M.George with a deepest sense of gratitude. He was a constant source of motivation and was always there to guice and support me. He was always there to give me valuable inputs and to motivate me on continuous basis.

I express my heartfelt gratitude towards my friend and colleague Prof. Rajesh Sanghvi for providing me strong support and helping me carrying out computational work. He has taken keeninterest in my work and supported without time constraints.

I would like to express my gratitude towards Prof. B.A.Doshi and Dr. S.N.Bhavsar for inspiring me to carry out the research work. I am also thankful to Dr. HemantThakkar and Dr. Y.A.Chauhan, Prof. H.S.Choksi for their help during the course of my research.

My thanks to Mr. Ajay Megha and Mr. Bindu Bhatt for their help related to university matters.

I whole heartedly thank Dr. C.L.Patel (Chairman, CharutarVidyaMandal) for permitting me to pursue my Ph.D. along with my job. I also thank Principal Dr.H.B.Soni (GCET) for giving me freedom to use college premises for my research work even during late hours and on holidays.

A special heartfelt gratitude is offered to my younger brother Mr.Kinnar M Tamboli who has been taking utmost care of my paralytic mother during my research work.

In the end I would like to bow down to Lord Shri Krishna for showering His blessings on me and to show me the right path to travel on.

Ketan M Tamboli
