ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the outset, I express my sincere gratitude and heartfelt thanks to my supervisor Dr Pardeep Sachdeva, Professor & Chairman, Department of Public Administration for his help and support in the conduct of this research work. His intellectual insights and suggestions were really stimulating and instrumental in shaping ideas to accomplish this endeavour. During the research, he has always been available to guide despite his busy assignments.

I am also grateful to Professor Manjusha Sharma, Professor Rajesh Bhatt and Dr. Pankaj Singh, for their generous support for my research. Without their appreciation and support, it would not have been possible to complete this task.

I also express my gratitude to the librarians and the staff members of Jawahar Lal Nehru Library, Kurukshetra University for their cooperation and help.

I would also like to extend sincere thanks to the principals and teachers-respondents for sharing their experiences and facilitating the data.

I also feel grateful to Brinda D. Srininivas, Renu Bala, Jissy Thomas, Geeta Rani and Mahabir Singh Kharb—teachers for their valuable insights and suggestions; and to all friends who gave their inputs on various aspects of education.

I also express my heartfelt gratitude to Professor Ramesh Chander Dalal, University School of Management, Kurukshetra University, for his help and support in the conduct of this research work. Special thanks are also due to my friend Mr. Mam Chand Garg and Mr. Ram Mehar for their assistance and invaluable help.
Indeed, it is my august duty to acknowledge the inspiration and help received from my elder brother Dr Raj Rup Fuliya, IAS, Addl Chief Secretary, Govt. of Haryana (Retd.) for his untiring services in the field of education particularly during his posting (2005-2006) as Divisional Commissioner, Hisar and Vice-Chancellor, Guru Jambheshwar University, Hisar. I also express my gratitude to Dr Harish Rohil and Manu Garg for their support and Mr. Ajay Gupta, Gupta G Computers, University Market, K.U. Kurukshetra for composing the matter with great care and giving final shape to the thesis.
