Acknowledgement

Research in ELT requires the co-operation of teachers and various institutions devoted to English studies. During this research work I was fortunate enough to get willing and enthusiastic co-operation, help, guidance and good wishes of many persons.

I would like to take this opportunity to express my deep sense of gratitude to all those who have helped me directly or indirectly.

First of all, I owe to the almighty for providing me strength and showering His blessings on me throughout the work.

I am greatly indebted to Shri Rajendrasinh Jadeja, Principal, H.M.Patel Institute of English, Vallabh Vidhyanagar who has been my guide in more sense than one. What I owe him may well go beyond the scope of this simple study. Without his help I could not have completed it. I am grateful to him for sparing his valuable time despite his busy schedule.

My sincere thanks are due to Dr. (Mrs.) Ranganayaki Srinivas, without her guidance this work would never have seen the light of the day. She read through the drafts and wrote elaborate comments on each of them with infinite patience. Her lucid comments helped me to gain a better understanding of the process involved in editing and revision.

I also express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr.Sulbha Natraj, Principal Waymade College of Education, Vallabh Vidhyanagar whose persistent motivation, inspiration, guidance and innovative suggestions encouraged me to complete this academic endeavour.

Similarly, I would like to thank Dr. Jacob Thoru, Head Evaluation Department CIEFL, Hyderabad, Dr.Julu Sen, Reader CIEFL Hyderabad, Dr.
Ranu Vaniker, Former Head of M.S. University, Baroda and Dr. Anil Paliwal, Bhartiya Vidhya Bhavan, Udaipur for their valuable suggestions.

At this juncture I am thankful to Shree B.N. Gandhi, Academic Secretary of S.P.T. Arts and Science College, Godhra for his constant encouragement and also for facilitating me with a good number of books.

I am grateful from the core of my heart to Shree B. K. Bhanot, former head of English department, S.P.T. Arts and Science College, Godhra without whose help and constant motivation I would not have completed this work. Right from the selection of the topic to the end of the research work he took immense pain. He patiently went through various drafts and made insightful comments, which helped me, a lot.

I am extremely thankful to Co-coordinator Functional English Course Prof. Kamlesh Budhbbhatti of R.R. Lalan College, Bhuj and Prof. (Mrs.) Komal Pandaya of Anand Arts College, Anand, Fr. Vincent Saldhana of St.Xavier’s College, Ahmedabad and Prof. Samir Dabhi of Arts, Commerce and Science College, Borsad for their active cooperation.

I would like to thank Mr. Yagnesh Purohit, I.J. Patel B.Ed College, Mogri for his help in the statistical analysis.

It was Shree Bindubhai Bhatt Office Superintendent of S.P.University, Vallabh Vidhyanagar, who facilitated all the administrative work in connection with my thesis and I am thankful to him.

I am grateful to my parents and brothers for having encouraged me to embark on the path of academic study. I must also be thankful to my wife and daughter for having borne with patience the years of neglect during which I have been busy with my work.

I am thankful to my friend Mr. Vilas P. More, who typed my thesis carefully and accurately, my colleagues Ms Suma Das, Dr. Arun Vaghela, Shree Ghanshyam Jograna and Shree Vinod Gandhi who kept my spirits up throughout the work and Shree Mahendra B.Shah librarian S.P.T. Arts and Science College, Godhra who provided me a good number of books.

I must also acknowledge the cooperation extended by staffs of CIEFL Library Hyderabad, H.M. Patel Library and S.P. University Library Vallabh Vidhyanagar.

In the end I am greatly indebted to all my teachers, colleagues, friends and relatives who have helped me in a number of ways all through the work.
