In this research work, the investigator has tried to interpret India's educational history of the latter half of the 19th century from socio-political perspective.

The investigator is deeply grateful to his guide Principal P.C. Privedi for his very valuable guidance and inspiration. The investigator is thankful to all his friends who have helped him in one way or the other.

P. C. Privedi

Vellore University,