I am greatly indebted to my guide Dr. C. K. Patel, principal, Anand Education College, Anand for his keen interest and valuable guidance in the present work. This work would not have been possible without his help. He always encouraged me and inspired in my work.

I express my thanks to the heads of all the secondary schools for their kind co-operation and providing the facilities. I also express my thanks to the teachers of Sanskrit for their help at the time of administering the scale.

I also express my deepest sense of gratitude to those educationists who helped me on various occasions during my work.
