ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am grateful to my guide Dr V. S. Vyas, Professor and Head, Department of Economics, Sardar Patel University, Vallabhbh Vidyanagar (at present Member, Agricultural Prices Commission, Government of India, New Delhi), who has not only guided and shaped the present thesis, but has also encouraged and boosted my morale in times of stresses and strains.

Thanks are also due to a number of friends, well-wishers and Institutions who have helped and encouraged me, at various stages of preparing this thesis. My thanks are particularly due to the Agro-Economic Research Centre, Vallabhbh Vidyanagar, and to its staff members, particularly, Shri M.D. Desai (Deputy Director) and Shri K.K. Mohan (the then, Data Processing Officer) for active assistance in processing and tabulating data. Thanks are also due to the Electronic Data Processing Centre, University of Bombay, for programming assistance and running the programme on their Computer.

I am also thankful to Dr B.V. Mehta, Professor and Head, Department of Economics, South Gujarat University, Surat, for going through the manuscript and making valuable suggestions.

I am also thankful to Shri Vinayak Dharap (at present with Bank of Maharashtra), for statistical assistance. My thanks are also due to Dr Bhagwandas, Reader in Statistics, South Gujarat University, Surat, for providing suggestions on statistical aspects, particularly at the analysis stage.

Last, but not the least, I am grateful to all my respondent farmers, merchants and co-operative societies, who patiently responded to my queries, and without whose co-operation the thesis would not have seen the light of the day.
