Acknowledgements

“When you really desire to get something, the whole universe conspires in helping you to achieve it”

– Paulo Coelho

It is my great honor to have had the learned professor, Dr. A. G. Khan as my guide, on whose encouragement and supervision, I could dare to undertake this project at as far off a place as Hyderabad, Andhra Pradesh. I do desire to remain ever in his indebtedness.

I am thankful to the Director (BCUD) of Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University for granting me extension to submit my thesis. My thanks are due to the OUCIP (former ASRC), for letting me avail the library facilities and all the necessary journals and reviews. I would like to mention my indebtedness to Dr. Mahlqua Khan, Lecturer Dr. Rafiq Zakeria College for women, for offering me timely guidance and support whenever necessary.

My sincere thanks are due to Prof. Satish Deshpande, Head, Department Of English, Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University, Aurangabad for his support and encouragement. I am also thankful to Prof. Intekhab Hameed Khan, Prof. Kashinath Ranveer, Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University, Aurangabad for their support.

I am grateful to Prof. G. K. Subbaraydu and Prof. Durga Bhavani, Department of English, Koti Women’s College, Hyderabad for their constant encouragement and support. I am also thankful to Late. Prof. Vijayshree, Prof. Sukhbir Singh, Dr. Y. L. Srinivas, Department of English, Koti Women’s College, Hyderabad.

My father, Mr. Nagorao Deshpande, has been living a dream for past five years of seeing his daughter getting the Ph. D. degree! That dream is what is keeping him energetic and full of life at this age of eighty six! His constant inspiration and words “God is Great” have actually been a major driving force towards the completion of this project. My best supporter and worst critic! I wish to remain ever in his indebtedness.
My trips to Aurangabad for this project were also my trips to my maher (mother’s place). And my eldest brother Mr. Arvind Deshpande left no stone unturned to make my stay the most comfortable here! My deepest Vahini (Sister-in-law), Mrs. Smita Deshpande kept me full with delectable dishes by her expert culinary hands and took charge of my naughty children while I was concentrating on this project. I wish to remain ever in their indebtedness. I am also thankful to my elder brother Mr. Ram Deshpande and my dear Vahini, Mrs. Sheela Deshpande for their support and encouragement. I am also thankful to my elder brother Mr. Prakash Deshpande and my dear Vahini Mrs. Vidya Dshpande for their timely help and support.

Very few women get an opportunity of undertaking such a project after marriage. I am lucky to be one of those few! I got complete support and encouragement for this project from my in-laws. My father in-law, Dr. Arvind Deshpande kept on emphasizing the importance of this project from time to time. My affectionate mother-in-law, Mrs. Anagha Deshpande, absolutely not being like the ‘typical’ one, encouraged and supported me whole-heartedly! I wish to remain ever in their indebtedness. I am also thankful to Ms. Kalyani Deshpande and Mr.
Amit Shah for their well wishes.

‘Friends in need are friends indeed’! Dr. Vivek Mirgane, Principal, Shri. Bankatswami College, Beed helped me in every possible way to complete this project; keeping me updated with new rules and pushing me into this so I could finish the project within the given time! While working on such a project what one really needs is a pat on the back and words of reassurance! “You can do it,” were the words of my best friends, and Dr. Shubhada Sahastrabuddhe, Lecturer, Koti Women’s College, Hyderabad, Dr. Shilpa Deshpande, Vice-Principal, MGM, Clover Dale School, Aurangabad which gave me the necessary energy!
My deepest gratitude towards them!

Words do not come easy to express my unlimited gratitude towards my beloved husband, Mr. Rahul Deshpande, the anchor of my project; friend, philosopher, and guide! Kids, hospitals, guests, depression, and confusion – everything was on the list in last five years and he untangled them one by one successfully. From a babysitter to a computer genie – he played all the roles to support this project! He took charge of many domestic duties and made sure that I get sufficient time to study on this project. I am too overwhelmed to say more...
The one name which I call hundred times a day for past one year is Alka Mavshi, my maid. She was always there for the domestic crises management while I was busy studying. Although she cannot read this, it will be unfair on my part not to mention her. My big thanks are due to her.

Last but certainly not the least, my pillus, my dearest angels, Alaap (3 years) and Samai (8 months!), who are the solid and bouncing sources behind this work! It is only after becoming mother myself, that I could grasp the real image of Jewish Mother – one of the major themes of my project! The immense pleasures of motherhood actually helped me in having a better insight into my subject. I could not spend more time with them during the past few months, but they understood and showed enough maturity at this age. Holding and hugging them were my best energy boosters, which helped me concentrate more. Lots of love to my bachhas!

I am thankful to all the other family members and friends for their support.

Aurangabad

Ms. Sharayu Deshpande

March 2013