ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I would like to acknowledge my everlasting gratitude to Dr. Shastri Jayendrabhai Dave, Reader in Education, Sardar Patel University, for his valuable guidance and suggestions during the entire period of this research. Without his help this research would still be far from complete.

I deeply express my feeling of gratitude to Dr. Lokesh Kaul, Professor of Education, Himachal Pradesh University, for valuable suggestions and guidance.

I am also indebted to my friend Dr. C. K. Bhogayata, Department of Education, Bhavnagar University, for his constructive suggestions and providing encouragement during this study.

Work, such as this, needs the help of many more individuals than can be acknowledged by name. And yet, I cannot help mentioning the name of friends such as Dr. P. C. Shah, Shri M. J. Otharia and Shri Hasmukh Jani who figure out as very outstanding among such individuals.

The biggest vote of thanks must go to the principals, teachers and students who made the present work pleasant and systematic by their willing co-operation.

- Ravindra Andharia

27 January 1987
"The reading interests with which children come to school are our opportunity, but the reading interests with which they leave school are our responsibility."