ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

A research work of this nature and magnitude can never be undertaken and culminated successfully without the guidance and inputs from a number of people around one. So it is with this one too, and it is my endeavor to pledge my humble indebtedness to everyone of them.

First and foremost I would like to acknowledge my gratitude towards my supervisor for the thesis Dr. R.K. Prabhakar, Head and Professor, G.H. Patel PG Institute of Business Management for his constant encouragement, direction, magnanimity and support. Without him, thesis would not have seen the light of the day. Focused path charting, regular monitoring of progress, critical academic inputs, guidance on where to look, what to look for, help in laying my hand on relevant literature and constant motivation, all very crucial to the research, were what I got from him and I could not have asked for anything more. I was indeed fortunate to have a guide like him. I thankfully put this on record.

Another effective source of constant inspiration and motivation was Dr. G.P Bisaria, Director, Pacific Institute of Management. He always spurred me on to bigger things and this research is a result of that. I am deeply indebted to him for all his support and encouragement.

I would also like to put on record my sincere thanks to my colleagues Dr. Pramod Paliwal and Dr. Anita Sukhwal, who were very helpful in providing critical tactical inputs throughout the duration of my research.

I am also thankful to office staff of G. H. Patel P.G. Institute of Business Management. Particularly Ms. Hina Parekh, Mr. Jay and Librarian Ms. Nayana Patel for their help.

One can hardly embark on an endeavor of this magnitude without the blessings and encouragement of one's elders. I can hardly thank enough my respected parents and in-laws whose blessings and best wishes have guided me in completing this research.

Shri. Naveen Malkani of Apple Infotech and Ms. Shilpi, my student, have been of immense help in providing the support for editing of my thesis work.

I would like to acknowledge my wife Smt. Premlata Pandya for her constant help, invaluable inputs and inspiration throughout the duration of the research. I cannot ignore the smile and charm of my daughter Hiral and son Pavitra which always infused buoyancy and enthusiasm in me for my research work. I am also thankful to all my relatives, friends, colleagues and well wishers who have directly or indirectly inspired me in completing this thesis.

Last but not the least I would like to express my gratitude towards respondents for sparing their valuable time. Without their co-operation this research would not have been completed.
