ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This study is the outcome of the permission granted to me by late Dr R. K. Prabhakar to pursue a Doctoral Research work under him. I express sincere gratitude to him for registering me under him for undertaking Doctoral Research Study and assigning very relevant topic of the present times. I am also thankful to him for rendering very fruitful guidance in initial period of my research work particularly in framing the questionnaire and other related work.

I express my sincere gratitude to my Research Guide Dr Yogesh. C. Joshi for allowing to pursue my research work under him after untimely sad demise of Dr R. K. Prabhakar. I am thankful to him for his inspiring guidance and very nice cooperation. I thank him very much for his timely guidance to bring my research project to a successful and logical conclusion. I am also thankful to him for allowing to use other necessary facilities of his office for timely completion of research work.

I am also very much thankful to Dr J.S.Panwar, Professor and Head, G.H.Patel Post Graduate Institute of Business Management-Vallabh Vidhyanagar for the very quick and appropriate decision of transferring myself under Dr Yogesh. C. Joshi for continuing my research work and allowing me to complete my research work in time.

I wish to express my sincere thanks to Dr A.Shanubhogue, Professor and Head, Department of Statistics, Sardar Patel University, Vallabh Vidhyanagar for providing very timely and fruitful guidance for carrying out analysis for my research work and Professor H.J.Jani, former Dean, Faculty of Business management, sardar Patel University for advice whenever approached by me.

Other faculty members at G.H.Patel Post Graduate Institute of Business Management have also rendered advice and cooperation during my research work for which I extend my sincere gratitude.
I wish to express my hearty thanks to my friend Dr. Vilas Kulkarni, Lecturer B.K. School of Business Management, Gujarat University, Ahmedabad for supporting me throughout my work, which has been long and time consuming by encouraging discussion and providing appropriate suggestions.

I am heartily thankful to Mr Jaykumar Upadhyay and Ms. Hinaben for their administrative support extended to me throughout the duration of my research work. Shri Bharatbhai Parmar has helped to get the material typed when needed and Shri Shrinbhai has helped me related to information technology aspect. I am also thankful to them. Mrs Nainaben Patel and Mrs Priyankaben Gadhvi, as library personnel of department library, have helped me to search the relevant material from the library as and when needed. I am thankful for their favour. I am thankful to Mrs. Zankhanaben Solanki for her help whenever asked for. I am grateful to all of them.

I take this opportunity to thank officials and authority of Anand Agricultural University, Anand for granting me permission to pursue my Doctoral Study at Sardar Patel University, without which this endeavor would not have been a reality.

I wish to express my sincere thanks to Dr S. S. Sannabhadti, former Dean and Principal, S.M.C College of Dairy Science and Dr B. P. Shah, Dean and Principal, S.M.C. College of Dairy Science, Anand agricultural University for encouraging and allowing me to complete this study.

Last, but not the least, I owe my affectionate thanks to my family members Bhavna, Tarang and Smruti without whose support I would not have been able to complete this study.
