I have had the privilege of working under the thought-provoking, able and stimulating guidance of Professor (Dr.) A.B. Chauhan, and have greatly benefitted from his constructive criticism at all stages of the work. To him, I owe the deepest debt of gratitude.

I am indebted to Professor (Dr.) D.M. Shah, Head, Postgraduate Department of Business Studies and Hon. Director, G. H. Patel Postgraduate Institute of Business Management, Sardar Patel University for his keen and continuous interest he has shown in my present work. I am also indebted to Professor H.J. Jani who has helped me in innumerable ways at various stages of my study. I would, also like to express my sincere thanks to my elders Professor (Dr.) R.K. Prabhaker and, Professor (Dr.) J.S. Panwar for providing the motivational impetus.

I gratefully acknowledge my gratitude to the authorities of Gujarat State Financial Corporation, who were kind enough to provide me an access to the published and unpublished data and information. I would, in particular, like to put on record my sincere thanks to Shri R.G. Varshney (G.M., Finance), Shri J.P. Joshipura (Dy. G.M., Accounts), Shri J.P. Patel (Jt. G.M., Personnel and Administration), and Shri N.M. Mukhi (Secretary, Board). I am also thankful to Shri K. Gouri Shanker (Dy. Manager, IDBI, Ahmedabad Branch) who furnished useful data and information. It is impossible to acknowledge, individually, my indebtedness to different industrial units and their officials, whom
I interviewed. Discussion with them have been very helpful in making an unbiased analysis of the various facets of the empirical study. My sincere thanks are due to all of them.

I would particularly like to convey my sincere thanks to Principal (Dr.) C.B. Patyal, Principal A.D. Shah and my ex-colleagues in the C.P. Patel and F.H. Shah Commerce College, Anand for providing me inspiration and encouragement at the different stages of the work.

I appreciate the willing services rendered by Shri N.C. Parekh for typing the Thesis decently.
