BIBLIOGRAPHY

159. Meredith, H.V. : Physical Growth from Birth to Two Years. II. Head Circumference. Child Development, 17, 1-61, 1946.

172. Morton, T.G. : On unrecognized asymmetry of the lower limbs as a cause of lateral spinal curvature.

230. Stuart, H.C., Penelope Hill and Constunce Shaw: The Growth of Bone, Muscles and Overlying Tissues as revealed by studies, 1940.

244. Tolstrup, K. : On Psychologenic Obesity in Children

245. Townsend, C.W. : The So-called Psychological loss in

246. Udani, P.M. : Physical Growth of the Children in different socio-economic groups in Bombay. Indian in the pediatrician's office. J. Pediat., 22 :

115-170, 1943.

249. Warner, W.L., M. Meeker, and K. Eells : Social class in America : A manual of procedure for the measurement of social status. Science Research

250. Waston, E.H. and Lowery, G.H. : Growth and Development of Children. Yearbook Medical Publishers (Inc.,) Chicago, 1962.

251. Wetzel, N.C. : The treatment of growth failure in

253. Wieringen, J.C. Van : Secular Change of Growth 1964– 1966 height and weight surveys in the Netherlands in historical perspective, Vol. 1,2. Institute for Preventive Medicine TNO, Leiden, Netherlands, 1972.

