So the Saint Narada inquired of King Yudhisthira:

"I hope, your realm has reservoirs large and full of water, located in the different parts of the land, so that agriculture does not depend merely on the caprice of the rain-god."

MAHABHARATAM, SABHA PARVA, CHAPTER V, STANZA 67.