At the very outset, I wish to place on record my sincere and heartfelt gratitude to Dr. Ramesh, Associate Professor, Department of Studies in Law, University of Mysore, Mysore, for his valuable guidance, encouragement and cooperation in completing this thesis. I am deeply indebted to him for his guidance.

I express my profound gratitude to Dr. C. Basavaraju, Professor & Dean, Faculty of Law, University of Mysore, Mysore for all the support and encouragement extended to me during the study.

I express my sincere gratitude to Dr. M. D. Krishna, Associate Professor & Chairman, Department of Studies in Law, University of Mysore, Mysore, for all the support and encouragement extended to me during the study.

I am grateful to Dr. M. Suresh Benjamin, Assistant Professor, Department of Studies in Law, University of Mysore, Mysore, for his support and encouragement in completing the thesis.

I express my sincere thanks to Dr. T. R. Maruthi, Assistant Professor, Department of Studies in Law, University of Mysore, Mysore, for his timely help and advice.

I express my gratitude to the Librarian and all the staff of the Library of University of Mysore, Mysore and Judges Library, High Court of Karnataka, Bangalore for the help rendered in collecting the materials. My special thanks are to Mr. Navalgund, Librarian, and the staff of National Law School of India, University Library, Bangalore for the help rendered during the research work.
I am deeply indebted to my parents, Smt. Neelamma and Sri. Sidramappa Halashetti who have supported me throughout my studies and stood by me in time of distress and have taken care of my daughter Ujwala who lost her mother in tender age.

I must acknowledge the support and love extended to me by my beloved soul, my daughter, Ujwala during the research work. Her innocent smile reminds me that show must go on…

I am in tears to express my deep sense of gratitude to the departed soul, my wife, Dr. Annapoorna for all the support and encouragement extended to me at the initial stage of this research work….
