ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The Disadvantaged Children of Thailand have kindled in me a burning to do something for them in my life.

My first experience with the Disadvantaged Children of Thailand was alarming and disturbing. It was a turning point in my life. I decided to work for the uplift of these unfortunate children. To my good fortune, help was at hand. Rev. Father Carlo Luzzi, Mother Elisabetta Cavagna and late Mother Cadida, Rev. Father Alberto Pensa, Rev. Father Donine, Rev. Father Nipot Thianvihan and Rev. Father Joseph Harry Maier, encouraged me and strongly themed my resolve to go ahead with this project. The thesis has seen the light of the day, due to their continued inspiration and support. I am profoundly grateful to them.

Dr. Y. N. Sridhar, Reader Department of Studies in Education, University of Mysore, is my supervisor. His invaluable guidance, purposeful direction, constructive criticism and channelising my thoughts all showed me the path towards the completion of this work. I am immensely grateful to him.

I am thankful to Dr. M.S. Lalithamma, Professor and Chairman and Dr. K. Yeshodhara, Professor and Chairperson of Board of Study and Dr. G. H. Pavathamma, Professor in the Department of Studies in Education who has extended their valuable assistance and support.

I am very much thankful to Dr. Lancy D’ Souza, Reader in Department of Psychology, Maharaja’s College, University of Mysore, India and Ong-art Veerapatrasakul, Researcher and Professional of Teacher in Non-Formal Education Center (Khon Kaen), Thailand for their assistance in Statistical Analysis of my research work.

Special thanks are also due to Rev. Father Gilbert Aranha, PhD, STLC and who made valuable corrections and suggestions towards the perfection of this work. Professor T.T. Thomas and Annamma Thomas who diligently read the material and improved it by way of suggestions and corrections and Col Bhanu Prakash, Director and Chief Trainer for helping me with the editing and proof reading of this thesis.

I am sincerely thankful to Mr. Kasame Sakonlaphap, Mr. Prasarn Reangsang, Mr. Pitoon Songkeao, Mr. Chartchai Wongsawat and Assistante Professor Dr. Boonlert Klang-jai, for their invaluable suggestions and helpful and to all Sisters from the Sister of Charity of Saints Bartholomea Capitanio and Vincenza Gerosa, Directors, Managers, Social Workers, Staff and everyone in the orphanages in Thailand and my friends who have been by my side in this study. I fondly hope that this study will bring in a major change towards the welfare in the life of these unfortunate children in Thai society.

My sincere thanks also go to my family for the encouragement and help during the period of my study.
