Acknowledgements

It gives me immense pleasure and honor to express my deepest sense of gratitude to my mentor and advisor Prof. S. K. Gakhar, Centre for Medical Biotechnology, M. D. University, Rohtak, for his perpetual energy and enthusiasm, patience, motivation and unflinching support throughout my study. I appreciate his indispensable guidance and encouragement which has made my research experience productive and stimulating. His mentorship was paramount in providing a well-rounded experience consistent my long-term career goals.

I wish to extend my sincere thanks to Prof. P. K. Mehta, Director, Centre for Biotechnology, M.D. University, Rohtak, for his kind cooperation. I wish to acknowledge Prof. Madhulika Dube, Department of Statistics, M. D. University, Rohtak, for her invaluable help in analyzing my research work statistically. The suggestions from the faculty members Prof. P. K. Jaiwal, Prof S.N. Mishra, Dr. Anil Kumar Chellar, Dr. Harimohan, Dr. Neelam, Dr. Samander Kaurish, Dr. S.S. Gill, Dr. Ritu Gill, Dr. Ajit is highly acknowledged. They, along with giving moral and psychological support guided me in taking important and conclusive decisions during my stay in the university.

This research could not have been possible without the help and kind gestures from people of different villages who have helped me by allowing me to collect mosquitoes from their houses and neighborhood, thus imbining in me the virtues of altruism and benevolence. I am grateful to Dr. K.K. Thassu, Joint Director (Malaria & Filaria), Madhya Pradesh and Mr. Neeraj Pateriya (surveillance worker, Umaria) for their invaluable help and support in collection of mosquitoes.

I would especially like to thank my labmates Richa, Ashwani, Divya and Renu for rendering help and cooperating with me at every stage of my research. I appreciate my fellow labmates for creating a pleasant and friendly environment in the laboratory where I could deepen my sense of knowledge and research experience. I do not have words to give thanks to my senior colleagues Dr. Vpin and Dr. Mukesh Thakur for their invaluable help in my research work. They were always available for me and helped me in every possible way they could.

My heartiest thanks to all my friends Dr. Sanjay Yadav, Vikrant, Chandra Prakash, Deepi, Vishakha, Drishita, Megha, Vijay, Kuldeep, Netrapal, Ankur, Ajit, Manoj and all those whose names I could not recall now for being there for me even during my darkest phases. I am blessed to come across all these lifelong friends. I am grateful to my friend Ankush who made me strong in my weak times with persistent motivation and playing a role model of resilience and strength. He was always there for me whenever I needed him.

I am at the dearth of words to express my gratitude to my parents and family members for their unwavering love and support throughout my life. They have always been a guiding force in my life and supported me in all my pursuits. I owe my achievements to them because it is their sacrifices and prayers that have turned me into what I am.

I am thankful to the non-teaching staff of Faculty of life sciences for their constant cooperation. I would like to acknowledge Maharshi Dayanand University, Rohtak and Department of Biotechnology, Government of India, New Delhi for providing me financial support and a platform to pursue my dream.

Last but not the least, deepest thanks to God for being there with me through all the tests in the past years. You have made my life more bountiful.
