ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This study was conducted under the adept supervision of Dr. P. K. B. Nayar, Professor and Head of the Department of Sociology, Dean, Faculty of Social Sciences, University of Kerala, Trivandrum. I place on record my gratitude and indebtedness to Dr. Nayar for the valuable guidance rendered and sustained interest shown during the course of the study. But for his encouragement and inspiring guidance, this study would not have been completed.

The constructive criticism and constant encouragement of Dr. S. Mohan, Lecturer, Department of Education, Madurai Kamaraj University helped me a lot to carry out this study in this fashion. My thanks are due to him.

I am also thankful to Prof. E. D. David, Prof. P. C. M. Raja and Sri. R. Muralee Subramanian, Lecturer of the Department of Mathematics, Zamorin's Guruvayurappan College, Calicut for the willing help rendered to me for applying the statistical method appropriately.

The service rendered by the officials of the Panchayat, Agriculture and Development departments of the Government of Kerala is thankfully acknowledged.
The authorities of different libraries in Delhi, Trivandrum and Calicut provided me with their library facilities. I express my thanks to them.

I am grateful to my respondents who co-operated with me whole heartedly.

My thanks are also due to the U.G.C. for providing me with financial assistance for prosecuting the study.
