Dear Ashok,
I hope you reached Vallabh Vidyanagar safely. We are fine, but we have not received any letters from you. Has your school re-opened now. This will keep you busy, and you will have to buy your books. Please ask your teacher about the cost of the books.
We will send you the money soon. Write to us about the fees also.
Rama and Kavita remember you.
With our good wishes,
Yours affectionately,

VI Here is a story. Read it carefully. Some of the words are missing. Decide which word you would use, from the context and fill in the blanks.

A cap-seller was walking through a forest. There was a bundle of caps on his head. He was tired. First he sat under a big banyan tree near him. He lied down under the tree. It was cool there. He closed his eyes and soon fell asleep.

There were monkeys on the tree. They saw the bundle. They wore the caps and climbed up the tree.

When the cap-seller woke up he was surprised. His bundle lay open and the caps were missing. He searched his caps. At last he looked and saw the monkeys wearing his caps.

He took the cap off his head and threw it on the ground. The monkeys did the same. He happily collected them and walked away.
