ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The author wishes to express his sincere gratitude for the valuable guidance, unstinted co-operation and the inspiration provided by the supervisor Dr. A.R. Santhakumar throughout the course of this research work.

The author is thankful to Mr. S. Boominathan, Dr. M. Nagabhushana Rao, Mr. M. Sekar, Dr. M. Swamidurai and Dr. M. Lakshimipathy of College of Engineering, Guindy (C.E.G) for their constructive suggestions and assistance rendered during the experimental work and the computer analysis.

The author is thankful to Mr. R. Rajarathnam, Faculty of English, A.C. Tech., Mr. M. Kumar, Director, M.K. Engineering, Mr. R. Susendran, Deputy Director, Central Power Research Institute, Bangalore, M/s. S. Rudrapathy, T.K. Sudharsan, Managers and Mr. M. Ravi, Senior Design Engineer of Best & Crompton, Prof. S. S. Murthy, Visiting Faculty of Power System, C.E.G. Mr. M. Panneerselvam, Assistant Engineer, Tamil Nadu Electricity Board for their willing assistance and keen interest in this project.

The constant encouragement provided throughout the course of work by Prof. S. D. Raj, Director, School of Architecture and Planning (S.A.P.) and Prof. M. D. Haris, Dean of Architecture, S.A.P. are gratefully acknowledged.
The author also thanks Dr. P. Purushothaman and Dr. D. Stephen Sandegren for their keen interest in this project.

The author is highly indebted to Dr. V.C. Kulandaiyam, Vice-Chancellor, Anna University for providing the necessary facilities and financial support for carrying out this research work.

The help given by all the staff members of the Structural Engineering Division, C.E.G., staff members of Architecture Division, S.A.P. and the staff of Ramanujan Computing Centre of Anna University are acknowledged.

The patient co-operation, devotion and encouraging words from his wife Balamani and children Jayalakshmi and Ganesh Kumar made the author fulfill his cherished wish of completing the programme. The indebtedness of the author to the members of his family is indeed beyond description.

There are many who have assisted the author in ways beyond expression and to all those his gratitude is profoundly due.