ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The completion of this Research is like- planting a seed in to the soil and then watching it grow leaf by leaf – branch by branch and at the end finding with satisfaction that the small seed has grown into large plant which produces fruits and flowers. As we know the research work is a tough task, nobody can give justification to the subject alone. It takes an entire group of dedicated people to continue it at every step and I can say the same in the case with the present research. I have been blessed to have an entire team of professors who have been helpful in shaping this project so that it can be at its best.

Firstly, I would like to thank God almighty for the strength, stamina, patience, peace and wisdom bestowed on me by him, who enabled me to carry on every step when I felt weary and worn out.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to my respected guide Dr. Bhavik M. Shah for his encouragement and guidance, for helping me understand and advising me how to go about the Research in the best possible way, without his constructive suggestions and encouragement, it would have been impossible to finish the thesis. It is really remarkable that he shows so much patience and also motivated me at various times to move ahead with the work, I therefore take here an opportunity to extend heartiest thanks to him.

My sincere thank to Dr. Sneh Anand, Dr. M. L. Joshi and also thanks to the eminent panel of experts for their advice on the translation and adaptation of tool used in this research.

I must express my thanks, to the principals, teachers and orphan students who have helped me for data collection.

I am highly obliged and grateful to my parents Shriram Pal and Shobhana Pal, who have supported throughout with their wishes and blessings. I would like to remember my in-laws Gayatri Devi and Late. Balkishan Singh whose blessing are always with me. My sincere and heartiest thank to my husband Mr. Jitendra Pal Singh for support and encouragement in this work. I would like to thank my brother Dr. Narendra Pal and Dr. Yatendra Pal who has given me continuous support, inspiration and encouragement, in every walk of life directly and indirectly to helping me in completing my research work.
