ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am indebted to many individuals who have made this dissertation possible. Sincere gratitude to my supervisor Dr. Sunil Kumar Dutta, in the Department of Cultural Studies, for his insight guidance, most of all his support and patience throughout the last five years. Thank you so much for your mentorship and advice.

I also thanks to Prof. Mihir Kanti Chaudhuri, Vice- Chancellor, Tezpur University, for giving me the scope to fulfill my research work. I would also like to thank Dr. D. P. Nath, Associate Professor and Head of Cultural Studies Department, Dr. P. J. Mahanta, professor, Department of Cultural Studies, Dr. Madhurima Goswami, Assistant professor, in the Department of Cultural Studies and currently head in- charge in Women’s Studies centre.

Special thanks to Dr. Parasmoni Dutta, for his valuable advice and suggestion which have helped during the initial stage of my research work. I appreciate the efforts of doctoral research committee members, for their valuable suggestion and critiques which helped me in different stage of research work.

I acknowledge my gratitude to late Dr. Paragmoni Sarma and late Kailash Dutta, whose valuable suggestions were helping me in my research work. I am always indebted to both of you for your critiques and advice.

This thesis would not be possible without the help of Dr. M. N. Rajesh, whose encouragement and constant advice since my days in University of Hyderabad helped to select the topic as my Ph.D. work. Special thank to you sir for your continuous support and valuable time which you have given to me from your busy schedule. Under your wing I have been provided such tremendous opportunities for learning.

Special thanks to Biren Choudhury for his valuable suggestions and advice to complete my work.
My sincere thanks to Dr. Abhijit Dutta, Taburam Taid, Dr. Ganesh Pegu, Dr. Basanta Doley, Komission Mili, Late Di Ram Kumbang and Bijoy Deuri for their valuable information and suggestions have opened up new avenues for future research.

I am thankful to my friends, seniors, co-research scholar at Tezpur University for giving me support during my research work. Especially Dr. Mousumi Mahanta, Jayashree Saikia, Shilpi Goswami, Julee Duwarah, Jadobendra Borah, Ritu Kumbang, Minakshi Dutta, Rwisumwi Brahma, Papia Dutta, Subhi Baishya, Dina Swargiari.

I am indebted to Kishore Dutta and his family, Rimjim Dutta, Rabita Deka, Dr. Sanjeev Pran Mahanta, Narottam Pradhan, Pankaj Lahkar, Tankeswar Saikia, Taru Saikia, Gopal Bhuyan, Lily Bhuyan, Dilip Bora, Jayamati Dutta, Urmila Deka, Sandhya Roy, Lila Rahang, Sabita Deb, Barun Pangging and Pranab Barua for their help to complete my work.

I also convey my special thanks to Dr. Padmakshi Kakoti who helps me in every step of my research work by giving me valuable suggestions, advice whenever I needed.

I really thank to my informants, for their needful help and effort and whose support helps me to complete my work. They helped me whenever I visited my field and also over telephonic conversation they give me information whenever I need. Without their help my dissertation would not be able to give a final shape.

I truly appreciate the help from the central library of Tezpur University, IGML library of University of Hyderabad, NECTAF library of Tezpur University for providing me the scope to use their valuable resources for collecting secondary data and literary sources. I am particularly grateful to the authority of Tezpur University for providing me the Institutional Fellowship during my work.

I am grateful for the help and support and constant encouragement right from the beginning of my research work from my friend, Dr. Rhituraj
Saikia for your companionship and friendship. I could not have done this without the support of my parents Ajit Kumar and Dipanjali Dutta. Thank you for your emotional support, joy, confidence, belief in me and your reassurances in my abilities to accomplish my work. They provided me the strength and they always put a smile on my face every day. Special thank to my sisters Namrata and Hridaya for giving me entertainment, adventures and sharing memories when I needed a break.
