

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Completion of this doctoral program is made possible with the support of several people. I would like to express my sincere gratitude to all of them. First of all, I am extremely grateful to my research guide, Prof. D. M. Maurya, for his valuable guidance, scholarly inputs and consistent encouragement I received throughout the research work. This feat was possible only because of the unconditional support provided by Sir, a person with an amicable and positive disposition. Prof. D. M. Maurya has always made himself available to clarify my doubts despite his busy schedules and I consider it a great opportunity to do my doctoral program under his guidance and to learn from his research expertise. Thank you Sir, for all your help and support.

I sincerely thank Prof. L. S. Chamyal, Head of the Department, for his constant support and the facilities provided to carry out the research work at the Institute. Prof. L. S. Chamyal has been very encouraging and supportive, and I express my gratitude to him for his valuable suggestions and concise comments on the research papers of the thesis.

I was very much privileged to learn from Dr. Rachana Raj and Dr. Alpa Sridhar, DST Women Scientist at Department of Geology, the M. S. University of Baroda, who consistently extended their research expertise throughout my work, with data analysis, they were kind enough to undertake the editing work and have been very informative regarding the resources. I thank them for their contributions.

The thesis would not have come to a successful completion, without the help I received from Colleagues. I would like to thank Nitesh Khonde and Vikas Chowksey, for their help in connection with analysis of data and help in field work, despite their busy schedules. They have been very kind and patient and always willing to lend their help and support whenever I approached them. I acknowledge and appreciate Mr. Pramod Bhavsar (Field Assistant) for excellent help in the field.

I am very much indebted to my family, Specially my “Nani”, my parents, who provided unconditional love and care. A younger brother Nayan, Sister Pooja, who supported me in every possible way and phase of my life to see the completion of this work.

I would like to express my deep gratitude to my husband, Rakesh for his support, encouragement and unconditional involvement in the completion of the thesis, despite of his busy schedule. Thank you very much Rakesh.

I would like to thank all of them for their help and continuous support. I remember the family, friends and my associates, their cooperation and inputs enabled me to complete this work. If I have forgotten anyone, I apologize.

Above all, I owe it all to Almighty God for granting me the wisdom, health and strength to undertake this research task and enabling me to its completion.
